

ate: _____ "Precis And Composition"

(Part - II)

Question # 2:-

Make a precis & suggest a suitable title.

Titles-

"Character building"

or

"Strong character, Strong society"

or

"Building character: Foundation of strong society"

or

"The essence of human character"

Precis

This passage highlights the need of human building character rather than physical structures.

Twenty century ago, the great wall of China despite its strong structure and high height, failed to protect the Chinese from the invasion due to corrupt guards. Character development is crucial over all other constructions. An Orientalist said's warn us that destroying family structure, education system, and role of models can lead to nation failure. The author questions who will teach the human values when mother's, teachers and role models are discredited. A nation that prioritizes entertainment over education has no future.

Date: _____

Question # 03:-

Read the following & answer the questions.

Q# 01:

The role of courts in society is determined by the judges perception of their function, as well as the expectations of the public, the judiciary & legislature.

Q# 02:

Changing conditions sway the judicial self-perceptions of their role and other's expectations of the court, making the role of the court in constantly changing society.

Q# 03,

Public might criticize the judiciary for:

- 1- for being timid, not active, not creative and unimaginative in their law-making functions.
- 2- for over practicing judicial self-restraint.
- 3- Being labeled as "Socially reactionary" and limited role for judiciary.

Q# 04:

Academic & professionals critics typically describes the judiciary as timid, unimaginative not active and not creative.

Over the law-making process.

Sometimes they bestowed them with titles such as "Socially reactionary" or the "high priest of rigid stare decisis and limited role for judiciary."

Q# 05:

Judicial might become controversial because they:

- Appear in favor of one group over another.
- Go against popular opinion & public sentiments.
- Are challenging established norms and values.

Question # 04:

Sentence Correction:

i- There are less apples in the basket.
 → There are fewer apples in the basket.

ii- She was cooking dinner while he watches TV.

→ He was cooking dinner while he was watching TV.

iii- Many a travelers have gotten lost in this ~~city~~ maze-like city.

→ Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city.

iv- This movie was too interesting.

→ The movie was extremely interesting.

v- She speaks as through she has been an expert on the subject.

→ She speaks as though she was/were an expert on the subject.

Question # 05. f

(A) Punctuate the following.

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "what a huge herd of cattle. I counted 13,750 head". The man was surprised. "That's amazing," he answered. "I own that ranch and you are exactly right." I have exactly 13,750 head of the cattle. How were you able to count them so fast? It was easy, "I just counted their legs and divided by four".

(B) Preposition.

- i- He was great affection for his children.
- ii- would you like to attend by this dispute for him?
- iii- She didn't qualify herself in english.

- iv- He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- v- You should profit from/by his speech.

Question # 06.

(A): (i) to bring to book.

Meaning: To make someone accountable for their actions.

Sentence:

The police are working to bring the corrupt officials to book.

(ii) to drop in:

Meaning: To visit someone without informing them.

Sentence: She offers me to feel free to drop in at her place anytime.

(iii) Elephant in the room.

Meaning: The issue about which everyone is aware but no one is addressing.

Sentence:

The company's financial losses are the elephant in the room.

Question # 07:-

Translation:

A violinist played for 45 minutes in the New York sub-way, only a handful of people stopped. One couple applauded and the violinist collected around $30. No one even knows that the violinist was Joshua Bell, one of the best musicians in the world. Joshua played ~~one~~ one of the most complex pieces on his $3.5 million violin. Just before two days from his sub-way performance, Joshua Bell performed in Boston and earned thousands of dollars. The experienced proved that in ordinary environment, extraordinary things never shine and go on unnoticed and unappreciated. There are talented people everywhere who deserve reward and recognition but did not get it. So, go where you are appreciated.