

Question #02

Title: Nations are Built on its Character

In the past, different nations built great infrastructures to protect their territory. One such infrastructure is the Great China Wall that failed to protect it from invasions. Actually, the enemy bid on the character of security officers and proved that investment on the character building of a nation is of significant value. It is said that mothers, teachers, and heroes are the real nation builders. A civilization dies if ~~any~~ ~~of~~ these three are not regarded. It distances a nation from its character builders. Such a nation that prefers entertainers over nation builders has no chances of survival - a lesson for future generations.

Precis words = 102

Q#04

Sentence Correction:

- i. These are few apples in the basket.
- ii. The movie was very interesting.
- iii. At the end of the day, comes the hard test.
- iv. I had better called my parents to let them know about being late.
- v. Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city.

Q.05 (A)

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said "What a huge herd of cattle, I counted 13,750 head!" The man was surprised "That's amazing" he answered. I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly

WESTMINSTER

13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them; so fast? It was so easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four.

(B)

Rewrite the sentence.

- i. He has great affection towards his children.
- iii. She did not qualify herself in English.
- iv. He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- vi. You are not polite in your conduct with me.
- v. You should profit from his speech.

Q#07

A violinist played a tune for forty five minutes on New York subway. A handful of people stopped, a couple clapped and the violinist collected approximately thirty dollars. No one knew that the violinist was Joshua Bell, one of the world's best musicians. On this subway, Joshua played the most complex tune that was written with a violin of himself only, even a long standing process can effect the role of a court.

Q.3 There are few reasons listed in the text that stir public criticism on judiciary. One reason is the comments of judges in controversial cases that hurt the public sentiments or did not align with the public sentiments. Secondly, such cases sentential discussions, or political debates that makes the matter controversial, hence attracts the criticism.

Q.4 There are few reasons listed in the text that stir public criticism upon judiciary. One reason is the comments of judges in controversial cases that hurt the public sentiments or does not align with it. Secondly, judges carry different blames, judicial failures and negative attributes of their personalities that attract criticism.

Q.4. Most often the acadmian and professional critics of judiciary describe judiciary as an inactive, orthodox, and conservative body that has limited its work horizon on its own. They often name them as "Socially reactionary" or a "rigid follower of Precedent" and a devotee of limited jurisdiction of the courts.

Q5. In my opinion, judges seldom become controversial when they target public sentiments, or when the rulings are politically motivated. Secondly, it attracts criticism if the judges give conservative remarks on any issue, or they become personally interested in high profile cases.
