

QUESTION # 2

Twenty century ago chinese built great wall of China for defense. Nonetheless, owing to corrupt character of their soldiers they were attacked three times in hundred year. Here chinese failed to develop character of guards that is indispensable shield against odds. Building character is one of significant factor for novel creation. An orientalist said that if someone wanted to destroy civilization of nation destroy their motherhood, education system and demean their role model. This shall create suspicion regarding them. Thus younger generation shall be devoid of human values as they already prioritize singer, dancer, entertainment over scientists and teachers.

Title :

Importance of character
building of nation

Shot on realme C21
realme

QUESTION # 3

1- What factors determine the role of court in the society?

The role of court in the society is gauged by the factors like judges' perception of their functions, expectation of public from courts, the executive and legislature of court - Sometimes, judges perceptions and others' expectations do not coincides - The difference in opinion is owing to judges' opinion - on judicial role and others' expectation on nature of judicial role.

Henceforth, the rudimentary factors that determine the role of court in society are expectation of public, the executive and legislature of court. Nonetheless, role of judges perception of their function also plays role to some extent.

2. How do changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of court?

The judicial self-perceptions of their role and others expectations of court are changed by changing condition and conceptions

Shot on realme C21

realme

The role of court in society is in mobility rather at rest. The ~~per~~ periphery of role are not determined only by judiciary alone but by other political and social institution. So, change in political and social fabric thus influence the ~~circ~~ role of courts.

What are some reasons the public might criticize the judiciary according to text.

Public criticism are arised due to controversial cases in the judgment of courts and comments made by judges were out of tone with popular feeling or were too intensive to certain segment of the public. These cases are often charged with emotional, ideological, social and political feeling / elements

QUESTION : 4

- 1- The movie was too interesting.
The movie was very interesting
- 2- She was cooking dinner while watches TV.
She was cooking dinner while he was watching TV
- 3- She speaks as though she has been an expert on the subject
She speaks as she has been an expert on the subject
- 4- Many a travellers have gotten lost in this maze like city
Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze like city.
- 5- There are less apples in the basket.
There are few apples in the basket

QUESTION 5 (A)

A fast train raced along the border of biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at huge herds and when the train, finally, passed the other boundary of the ranch. He turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "What a huge herd of cattle! I counted, 13,750 head. The man was surprised, "that's amazing", he answered. "I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How are you able to count them so fast. "it was easy I just counted their legs and divided by four."

Shot on realme C21

realme

QUESTION 5(B)

- 1- He has great affection for his children.
- 2- She did not qualify herself for English.
- 3- He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- 4- Your principal will preside on the annual function
- 5- We will have to answer for our sins at the last day.

QUESTION 6(A)

- 1- The Writing on the wall
 Meaning: A clear sign that something bad is going to happen
 The company's declining sales figures were the writing on the wall for its eventual closure
- 2- To bring to book
 (To hold someone accountable for their actions)
 The police are determined to bring ~~to~~ book the perpetrators of bank robbery.

3- To rest on one's laurels

(To become complacent or satisfied with past achievements)

After winning championship, the team rested on laurels and lost following season.

4- To drop in

(to visit someone unexpectedly)

I might drop in on my friend Sarah after work to see how she is doing

5- Elephant in the room

(an obvious problem or issue that everyone is aware of but avoid discussing)

The company's financial crises was elephant in room that no one wanted to address.

QUESTION 6(B)

Sarah asked Mark if he had heard about upcoming competitive examination. Mark replied that he had and he had been thinking about whether he should have taken them or not. Mark additionally asked whether they really that important. Sarah replied that Absolutely competitive exams played crucial role in shaping their future. They not only tested their knowledge but also problem solving skills, time management and ability to handle pressure. Mark said that he had never thought about it that way. But was not they too stressful? He was worried about how he would perform under such pressure. Sarah said that it was natural to feel stress, but thought of them as a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams pushed them to strive for excellence and bring excellence in them. and sense of achievement you would feel after clearing them was unmatched. Mark replied that it was true. I guess they did offer a great opportunity to showcase their abilities and stand out among peers - Mark thanked the Sarah for helping him to understand importance of competitive exams - He said he would give his best shot!

QUESTION # 7

On the subway of New York a violinist played violin for 45 minutes - Smattering of people stopped and one couple clapped, and violinist gathered fifty dollars. No one knew that violinist was Joshua Bell, who was one of the best musician in the world - In this subway Joshua, with violin worth of 3.5 million dollar, played one the most intricately written melody - Before two days of subway incident Joshua Bell showed performance in Boston - He earned millions of dollar - It is vindicated through experience that in ordinary environment extraordinary things do not shine and often are overlooked and considered insignificant - There are many capable people all around who do not get that recognition and reward which they deserve. So go where you are respected and lauded.