

42/80

QUESTION NO. 02

Character Building For ^{05/20} Survival Of Civilisation

just follow the passage

~~The development of human character~~
~~surpasses the innovation of tangible~~ ~~products.~~ Great wall of China, built as an insurmountable weapon of defense, was invaded by enemy through exploitation of ~~weak~~ ^{reputation} character of guards.
Therefore, an orientalist once remarked that the destruction of civilization paves way through targeting of motherhood in family structure, absence of reverence for teachers in education system, and spoiling character of role models. This will lead to lack of means of teaching of human values to our young people. Hence, a nation showing respect to only entertainers, while insulting teachers lacks the character

Don't use I, we, us, our in Precis

development required for survival
A nation that prioritizes entertainers over scientists and educators is doomed to fail.

General Instructions

- Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
- Your passage must reflect the original idea of the passage
- Don't take direct sentences from the passage
- It is not the narration do precis
- Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

No. of original words in para = 294
No. of words written in precis = 103

QUESTION NO:03

11/20

Answers:: Length is enough,
Be relevant to the original passage

Answer no:01

There are multiple factors involved in determining the role of courts in society. Various elements including the perception of judge as well as the expectations of public, legislature and executive. Presence of hope of ^{displayed by} traitors of public, legislature, and executive versus the perspective of judge, sparks a difference in opinion as well between the two groups. Therefore multiple factors involved in determining the role of courts in society includes the expectations of public, legislature and executive in a larger proportion

Answer no:02

The changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of courts through ~~the~~ control of judicial self-perception of their role and expectation of others

03

This continuous process of change is not dictated by the judiciary ~~alone~~ only but the influence of political and social institution, is also exerted

This dynamic situation affects the assumptions of public, legislature and executive underpinned with the judicial system. Hence, the continuous evolving situation of political and social institutes impacts the judicial self-perception and role of courts.

Answer no:03

Reason for public criticism against judiciary involves the passing of judgement that is not in alignment with public feelings and the negative characteristics of judges. The concluding remarks passed regarding controversial matter affects the sensitive feelings of public. Moreover, possession of an ill-character gathers public criticism. Therefore, remarks on controversial matter and negative attributes gather public criticism.

Answer no:04

Academic and professional critics describe judiciary in multiple terms. They regard judiciary's role as shy, static, based on old principles lacking innovation and showing excessive practice of judicial self-restraint

On the basis of these characteristics, judges have been conferred

02 the titles of "social reactionary"

"the high priest of rigid stare decisis and the limited role for judiciary" by Viscount Simonds

Hence, academic and professional critics indirectly make remarks on judiciary

in limited terms and have bestowed certain titles in this regard.

Answer no: 05

Certain judicial rulings become controversial when certain cases

are linked with emotional,

ideological, social or political elements.

Presence of such elements

convert a legal matter into controversial

one. Such matters gather criticism, if rulings are at a distance from public feelings. Therefore, presence of certain invoking elements in the 02

case and ~~was~~ ^{Good} ~~convex~~ judicial rulings indifferent to public opinion, makes certain judicial rulings controversial.

QUESTION NO: 04 05/10

Part (i):

There are ~~few~~ apples in the basket.

Part (ii):

The movie was ~~very~~ interesting.

Part (iv):

She was cooking dinner while he ~~was watching TV~~ ^{watched}

Part (vi):

She speaks as though she ~~is~~ ^{were}
an expert on the subject.

Part (vii):

Many ^{of} travelers ^{had} have gotten lost
in this maze like city

QUESTION NO: 05

PART (A):

04/05

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana.

A passenger gazed at the huge herds,
and when the train finally passed

the other boundary of the ranch,

he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "What a huge herd of cattle! I counted

13,750 head." The man was surprised,

"That's amazing!" He answered, "I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattles. How were you able to count them ~~so fast?~~ "It was easy, I just counted their legs

and divided by four."

PART (B)

04/05

Part (i):

He has great affection for his children

Part (iv):

He prevented his younger brother
from going to cinema

Part (vi):

You are not polite in your conduct with me

Part (vii):

Your principal will preside
over the annual function

Part (viii):

We will have to answer for our sins at the last day.

QUESTION NO:06

PART (A)

05/05

(iii) Writing on the wall:

The remarks of ^{his} boss were writing on the wall that he was going to be fired soon.

(iv) To bring to book:

The mischievous act of the students was brought to the book by the principle.

(v) To drop in:

My ^{friend} friend dropped in at my place
before work.

(vii) To rest on one's laurels: (iii) 4-109
while resting on laurels

After winning the championship, the team didn't rest on their laurels and continued to train hard for the next season.

(viii) Elephant in the room:

The policy makers ~~were~~ ^{are} not addressing the elephant in the room that is the dire economic situation of the country. (ii) 2999

PART (B):

03/05

Sarah asked Marked if he ^{had} heard about the upcoming competitive exams. Mark replied that he had heard and was thinking if he should take them or not. He inquired questioning their importance if they are really important Sarah replied that positively and said that competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping ~~one's~~ ^{one's} future.

They test not only one's knowledge but also one's problem solving skills, time management and ability to handle pressure. Mark replied that he had never thought about it that way. He further inquired that aren't these too stressful and showed worry about if he will perform under such pressure. Sarah assured him that it is natural to feel stressed, but encouraged him to view the exams as a challenge. She explained that competitive exams push individuals to strive for excellence and bring out their best. Plus, the sense of achievement one will feel after clearing them is unmatched.

Marked agreed with her and said that he guessed they did offer a great opportunity to showcase one's abilities and stand out among one's peers. He thanked her for helping him to understand the importance of competitive exams and acknowledged that he will give his best shot

QUESTION NO:07

05/10

In the subway of New York, a violinist played a tune for 45 minutes

A few people stopped, a couple clapped and the violinist ~~collected~~ around 30 dollars. No one knew that the violinist was Sheva Bel,

Joshua

who was one of the best musicians in the world. In this subway, Sheva played one of the most critical tunes written with help of 35 million worth of violin. Two days before the incident of subway;

Shava Bel ~~performed~~ in Boston and earned millions of dollars.

From this experiment it is evident that an extra ordinary thing doesnot shine in an

— 1 — 1 — but setting/circumstances

ordinary environment and often overlooked and given less importance. Everywhere ~~you find~~ excellent and skillful people are present, who are not given recognition and award that they deserve. That is why one should go where one is complimented and ~~valued~~.
Therefore, go where you are appreciated and valued.
looked after.

Translation

- Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
- Focus on grammar please
- Do not attempt word by word