Q2. PRELIM OF PASSAGE :-

TITLE : "The importance of character over structures"
Human Values: The Bedrock of Nation

Twenty centuries ago, the Chinese built the Great Wall to safeguard against invasions, thinking its height would deter enemies. However, despite the wall's strength, the Chinese were invaded ~~three~~ ^{multiple times} within a century because the guards were bribed, allowing enemies to enter through the gates. This illustrates that building human character is more crucial than constructing physical defense. An orientalist noted that to destroy a civilization, one should undermine the family structure, devalue educators and discredit role models. He emphasized that without strong mothers, dedicated teachers and

CAUSES OF PUBLIC CRITICISM:-

Public criticism often arises from controversial cases where judicial ruling and judge's comments clash with popular feelings or appear insensitive to certain segments of the public. Criticism can also stem from perceived failures such as timidity, lack of creativity and over-practiced judicial self restraint.

ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL CRITICISM:-

Academic and professional critics typically describe the judiciary as timid, unimaginative, orthodox and conservative. Judges are sometimes labeled as 'society's reactionary' or 'the high priest of rigid stare and decisis and limited role for the judiciary'.

REASONS OF JUDICIAL RULINGS BECOMING CONTROVER...

Judicial rulings become controversial when they involve emotional, ideological, social or political elements. Such cases transform routine legal matters into public issues, often causing public uproar. Some rulings become controversial because they touch on deeply held beliefs and values, making the judicial decisions appear to conflict with societal norms and expectations.
