

MOCK EXAM

General Instructions

- Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
- Your passage must reflect the original idea of the passage
- Don't take direct sentences from the passage
- It is not the narration do precis
- Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

PART-II

06/20

Question no: 02

Human Values: The Bedrock of Society

"Beyond Physical Walls: The Importance of Human Values"

The Great wall of china was built to keep out invaders, but it failed because the guards were bribed. This illustrates that building character is more important than building physical structures. An orientalist warns that destroying a nation's family structure, education system, and role models can lead to its downfall. This is achieved by demeaning motherhood, discrediting teachers and scholars, and prioritizing entertainers over scientists and teachers. This raises the question of who will teach human values to the next generation.

A nation that prioritizes entertainers over scientists and educators is doomed to fail.

(Question no: 03)

09/20

Answer no: 01

The role of courts in society is determined not only by the judge's perception of their function but also from the expectations of the public, expectations of executive and the expectation of legislature.

01

Explain more

Answer no: 02

changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of the courts in several ways:

02

Judicial self-perceptions of their role are swayed by changing conditions, and conceptions of other's expectations of the courts are also influenced by changing conditions and conceptions. As a result, the role of courts in society is constantly changing and dynamic.

(Answer: 03)

03

According to the text, public might criticize the judiciary due to some reasons. First, controversial cases whose judgements or comments by judges are out of tune with popular feelings or insensitive to certain segments of public. Second, emotional, ideological, social or political elements that transform a routine legal matter into a controversial case. Thirdly, general criticism of judges for being timid, unimaginative, not active, not creative, conventional, or orthodox, or conservative in their law-making functions.

Good

(Answer: 04)

01

Academic and professional critics typically describe the judiciary as timid, unimaginative, not active, not creative, orthodox, conventional, or conservative in its law-making functions, and over practicing judicial self-restraint. Sometimes they bestow titles such as "socially reactionary" or "the high priest of the status quo" upon judges.

Write in your own word. Please don't copy the whole sentences from the passage

as seen in the case of viscount Simonds

(Answer no: 05)

certain judicial rulings might become controversial when they perceived as out of touch with popular feelings or insensitive to certain segment of the public, involve emotional, ideological, social or political elements or, are seen as inconsistent with societal values & expectations. Additionally, ruling maybe controversial if they are seen as unjust, biased or inconsistent with the law; or if they have significant implications for the public or specific groups.

02

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

Good

10/10

Question NO: 04

- (i) These are few apples in the basket ✓
- (ii) The movie was very interesting ✓
- (iii) She was cooking dinner while watching TV ✓
- (iv) Many <sup>a</sup> travelers <sup>has</sup> have gotten lost in this maze-like city ✓
- (v) she speaks as though she were an expert on the subject. ✓

Don't change the construction of the sentence

Question no: 05

03/05

(A) Punctuated passage:

A Fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man

Who was sitting besides him and said,
 "what a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head. The man was <sup>surprised</sup> "That's amazing" he answered. "I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast? It was easy. I just counted their legs and divided by four."

04/05 ✓

(B) Re-write the following ----- prepositions.

- (i) He has great affection for his children. ✓
- (ii) She did not qualify herself in English. ✓
- (iii) you should profit by his speech. ✓
- (iv) we will have to answer for our sins at the last day. ✓
- (v) He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema. ✓

(Question No: 06)

03/05

Please write proper sentences to bring out the meanings of idioms

- |                             |  |
|-----------------------------|--|
| (1) a passing fancy.        | She was only a passing fancy to me.  |
| (2) on the anvil            | Just wait, your proposal is on the anvil.                                    |
| (3) The writing on the wall | The writing on the wall is that he is sure to fail.                          |
| (4) to drop in              | Whenever we were having dinner, she dropped in.                              |
| (5) elephant in the room    | Her dad's depression had been the elephant in the room at family gatherings. |

The Company's declining sales were the writing on the wall that they needed to innovate or risk going out of business.

(A)

- Question 6 (B) -

Sarah: Sarah greeted Mark and asked him if he had heard about the upcoming competitive exam.

Please read instructions, You have to convert dialogue into single passage

Mark: Mark replied that he had and was thinking about whether to take them or not.

Sarah: Sarah emphasized that competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping their future, testing not only knowledge but also problem-solving skills, time-management and ability to handle pressure.

Mark: Mark appreciated Sarah's views and was worried about the exam stress. He expressed his concern about how he would perform under such pressure.

Sarah: Sarah told Mark that it was natural to feel stressed but he should think of it as a challenge. She explained that competitive exams push people to strive for excellence and bring out the best in them, and the sense of achievement would be unmatched after clearing them.

Mark: He agreed that competitive exam do offer a great opportunity to showcase their abilities and stand out among their peers. He thanked Sarah for helping him to understand the importance of competitive exam, and promised her that he would give it his best shot.

(Question no 07) 04/10

In New York's subway, a violinist played tune for 45 minutes, some of people stopped, and a couple clapped, and violinist collected 30 dollars. No one knew this that violinist was Joshua Bell, one of the world's best musicians. On this subway, Joshua played one of the complex tune on his 3.5 million dollar worth violin. Just two days before this subway performance, Joshua Bell had performed in Boston and earned millions of dollars.

Experiment have shown that extraordinary thing does not shine in normal environment and it is often overlooked and unappreciated. There are Brilliant and talented people everywhere who are not getting that recognition and reward they deserve. That's why go where you are valued and appreciated

Translation

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word