A violinist played the tune for 45 minutes in a subway in New York.

A handful of people stopped, a couple clapped, and the violinist collected 30 dollars. No one knew this the violinist was Joshua.

He was one of the best musicians in the world. In this subway, Joshua played one of the most complex tunes ever written with a violin worth 3.5 million dollars. Two days before the subway incident, Joshua performed in Boston, and he earned millions of dollars. Experience has proved that extraordinary things do not shine in ordinary environment. And these are often ignored and undervalued. There are brilliantly was sitting beside him and said,

"What a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head." The man was surprised. "That's amazing!" he answered.
"I own that ranch, and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13, 750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?"
"It was easy," replied the passenger.
"I just counted their legs and divided by four."

The Great wall of China was built to keep invaders out, but it failed because the guards were bribed. This shows that building character is more important than building walls. A nation's civilization can be destroyed by attacking its family values, education system, and role models. If mothers, teachers, and scholars are disrespected who will teach human values to the next generation? A nation that prioritizes entertainment over education has no future.

"Hey Mark, have you heard about the upcoming competitive exams?" Sarah asked. "Yeah, I have," Mark replied.

"I have been thinking about whether I should take them or not.

Are they really that important?

"Sarah responded, "Absolutely! Competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping our future. They not only test our knowledge but also our problems-solving skills, time management, and ability to handle pressure." Mark said, "Hmm,

I never thought about it that way.

But are not they too stressful?

I am worried about how I will perform under such pressure." Sarah encouraged, "It is natural to feel stressed, but think of it as a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams push us to strive for
