Q: Make the precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Title: The importance of human character in nation building.

Human Values: The Bedrock of Nation

Precis:

Twenty centuries ago, the Chinese built the Great Wall of China ensuring peace. They believed that its height would prevent invasion. However, within a century they were invaded multiple times as the forces bribed the guards to enter through gates. This highlights that building human character is very important than all other things. An orientalist said that destroying a nation's civilization involves undermining family structure, education and role models. By destroying motherhood, education and scholars, a nation loses its ability to teach human values to the young generation. A society that prioritizes entertainers over scientists and teachers has
