Importance of Human ^{values} morale in Nation building

Chinese built Great Wall of China for peace, thinking that none could mount it. But morally sick guards of wall allowed enemy soldiers to encroach the wall ^{multiple times} thrice. Chinese focused on building heighted wall rather than building morale of guards. Therefore, human morale building should be promoted because it lays foundation of everything. A ^{Orientalist} philosopher described three ways to diminish culture of a nation. Firstly, undervalue motherliness to wipe out family. Secondly, defame the teachers to knock down education system. Thirdly, ^{devaluing} privately diminish scientists and scholars from society. When a society loses these three pillars, there will be no one to teach Human morale and it will have no future.
