

Part. II

03/20

Q. 2

Human Values: The Bedrock of a Nation

Success Lies in high morals ?

For a nation success lies in high morals rather than investing their time on building infrastructure.

However, now a days, nations are giving more values their dancers, entertainers, and singer over the intell-

These were last sentences of the passage

As a result, the intellectuals that could be parents, teachers, and other role model are loosing the desired place in front of young generation. According to a wise man, to destroy a nation, one has to destroy its family structure, educational institutions and <sup>engage</sup> the role model. All these three things, would be enough to take down a nation on its knees.

please follow the original passage

Your passage must reflect the original idea of the passage

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

Total words in Paragraph: 285

It is not the narration do precis

Total words in Precise: 103

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Q. 3.

06/20

Ans

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Q. 1. Read the passage carefully

01

The factors which determine the role of courts in society are public opinion, the executives and the Legislators of the courts

Write atleast 2 or 3 sentences

QNO2.

The decisions of judges and the expectations of the public change with the changing conditions. As a result, the courts are unable to issue their decision on pure meritocracy. And the public and other political leadership always remain skeptical about ~~their decision~~ the decisions of judges. In brief, role of courts in society is not constant, it always depends upon the given condition.

QNO3.

In public's opinion, courts don't follow judicial lines. Most of the decisions made by the courts are integrated with popular ideas. Similarly, their personal feelings, social, ideological and political associations are also involved in their decisions.

QNO4.

The Academics and the professional professional critics typically describe the court as controlled, less creative, inactive, aligned with old ideas and narrow minded ~~state~~ on their law making responsibilities. Similarly, they also related the judiciary system with viscounts Semons.

QNO5.

In my opinion, certain judicial rulings have been criticized, because of the politicized historical role of the judiciary. At multiple occasions, judiciary one sided decision, which made the nation

Skeptical about them. Moreover, throughout the history judiciary tried to align itself with popular ideas which made it a politicized institute rather than the ~~just~~ institute of justice and equality. In brief, judiciary decisions must be unbiased and on the interest of public.

Q. NO 4.

02/10

ii. The movie was <sup>very</sup> interesting!

vi. She speaks though on the subject as she has been expert on the subject.
She speaks as though she were an expert on the subject.

viii. Many a travellers has gotten lost on the maze like city.

iv. He watched TV while she was cooking.
She was cooking dinner while he watched TV.

iii. The hard tests come at the end of the fall.
She was cooking dinner while he watched TV.

Q. NO 5.

Part — A

03/05

~~A fast~~

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the border of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him, and said, "what a huge herd of cattle, I counted 1,3750 head." The man was surprised, "that is amazing!" he answered, "I own that ranch and you are exactly right, I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?" "It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by 2."

Part - B

05/05

- i. He has great affection for his children.
- ii. Would you like to attend on this dispute for him?
- iv. He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- vi. You are not polite in your conduct to me.
- vii. Your principal will preside over the annual function at QNO6.

03/05

~~Part~~ Part - A

An obvious problem or issue that people avoid discussing.

viii. Initially, she considered speaking english as putting elephant in the room.

vii. As he turned 80 years old, the people considered him as a puffed pipe but he proved them wrong by winning the marathon.

The corrupt officials were finally brought to book after a thorough investigation revealed their misconduct.

iv. The teacher tried to correct his actions by bringing him to the book.

Please write proper sentences which must convey the meanings of idiom

i. Today, the youth is kindly passing the fancy.
(a liking that lasts only a short time)

iii. His escape from the crime scene is the writing on the wall.

(there are clear signs that a situation is going to become very difficult or unpleasant)

The Company's declining sales were the writing on the wall that they needed to innovate or risk going out of business.

B.

03/05

Sarah asked Mark if he had heard about the upcoming competitive exams. Mark replied that he had and mentioned he was contemplating whether to take them or not, questioning their importance.

Mark ~~replied~~ replied that whether he should give the exams or not because he is skeptic about their importance. In reply, Sarah emphasized about the importance of exams and said to Mark that these exams would help him in his problem solving skills, time management and ~~hand~~ pressure handling problems. After taking a pause and realizing the importance of exams, Mark asked if the exams ~~are~~ were not stressful and he was worried about handling the pressure. On Mark's concerns, she replied that stress is natural and ~~so~~ he should focus to overcome the stress, and these exams would help him to overcome his stress. In the ~~next~~ end, ~~the~~ Mark realized the importance of exams as they provide a chance to show one's abilities and compete with fellows, and he ~~to~~ also showed his gratitude to Sarah for her suggestions.

he resolved to give his best shot at the exams.

① No. 7

03/10

In the subway of New York, a violinist played a tune for 45 minutes. A few people stopped and one couple showed their appreciation by clapping and that violinist earned about thirty dollars. Nobody ~~had~~ <sup>knew that</sup> any about that ~~violinist~~ man. Actually, that man was Joshua Bell, who was a famous composer and a violin player. In that subway, Joshua Bell played ~~one of his most complex tunes~~ most intricate pieces ever written on a violin worth $3.5 million. composition by his 3.5 million dollar expensive ~~violin~~ violin but ~~no body~~ paid much attention.

to him. Few days prior, sk he presented <sup>performed in Boston</sup> the same composition in Boston and earned million of dollars. Hence, His experiment shows that the people born

"You missed one sentence"

There are brilliant, talented people everywhere who are not receiving the recognition and reward they deserve.

<sup>with special ability need a specific environment to shine.</sup> So, one should surround himself with that people who appreciate one's talent.

Therefore, go where you are appreciated and valued.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word