Title:

"Importance of Education and Character to build a Good Society."

Human Values: The Bedrock of Society

07/20

Chinese built the Great Wall of China to prevent their country from enemies but invaded After its construction, they were defeated in 3 times because of bribed wall guards could not build the character of their guards.

That's why, building human character is more important than construction of wall.

An Orientalist said: To destroy a nation then destroy their education system, character and degrade their motherhood and role models. Moreover, when a society does not give importance to their teachers and role models, it destroys their education system and also reduces their credibility. When a nation gave more importance to their artists than their teachers and scientists, it leads to decline and reduce chances to build a good society in future.
