

Essay Test 2

Human civilization is shaped by values not machine

1 Introduction

- Hook statement
- General statement
- Thesis statement: Although machine has impact on human civilization, human civilization is largely shaped by values in various aspect of human life.

2 How values are foundation of human civilization.

3 Values are basic elements which play important role in various aspects of human civilization.

(3a)

Playing role by value in social development

(case in point ÷ Enlightenment period, modern human rights movement)

(3b)

Values in science and technology is playing role ethical guidelines and shaping technological development.

(Case in point: Medical ethics such as clone formation)

(3c)

Developing legal system through guidelines of values

(Case in point: The United states constitution)

(3d)

Values is driving economic system in different part of world.

(Case in point: capitalism, socialism)

(3e) The Role of values in shaping human culture

(Case in point: literature, art, music)

4 Impact of human machine on human civilization of different sectors:

4(a)

Changing human civilization by impacts of machine on economic sector

(Case in point: <sup>agricultural machinery</sup> industrial revolution)

4(b)

Social values has changed due to machine discovery

(Case in point: Online learning platform
The Great migration)

4(c)

Technology has profound impact on human civilization

(Case in point: MRI machines, The internet)

4(d) Machine has also change human culture ~~also~~

(Case in point: social interaction changed
Twitter, facebook, digital art)

5 Conclusion