

Name: Jawad

Part II

Q. 4

(i) Arham told that he was not available.

(ii) My nephew is going to arrange a Party on next Saturday

(iii) My uncle arrived in Islamabad yesterday. He is staying here for a week.

(vi) If Waseem wins the Lottery, he will travel a lot

(v) My Grandfather grows up tomato.

Q. 5 (A)

Bob excitedly burst into the living room, holding a peculiar gadget. "Honey! Look what I bought a robot Vacuum Cleaner", he exclaimed his wife. Lisa eyed it skeptically.

You spent our Savings on that. But, "it will save us time", bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, Chaos ensued. It zoomed around bumping into walls and furniture, sending objects flying. Lisa sighed this is not helping. Bob sheepishly admitted that maybe he got carried away. They erupted into laughter realizing some messes are best cleaned up the old-fashioned way - with teamwork and a trusty dustpan.

Q. 5(B)

(ii) She died from Corona

(iv) He is fond of reading books

(vii) He is reluctant to perform his duty.

(iii) He jumped over the gate

(v) Translate the following text from English to Urdu.

Q.7

The billionaire Jan Jacob Easter was the passenger of Titanic at the time it drowned.

The money in his bank account could build thirty Titanics.

~~Despite~~ ^{Despite} Confronting life-threatening situation, he decided to do what he considered morally right, and left his place in the lifeboat to save two ~~and~~ Afraid Children.

Astor Easter, the owner of the largest chain of departmental stores in America, was also a passenger on the Titanic. He said, "I will not enter the lifeboat until all other men have boarded first." His wife

Eda Easter also refused to board lifeboat and gave her place to her servant Ellen Bard. She decided to spend last moments of her life with ~~his~~ her husband.

These rich people did not compromise on their moral principles but chose to Sacrifice their lives and wealth. Their choice to prioritize moral values highlight the aspects of human nature and civilization.

Q.2

Title: Ephialtes' Desire To Become a Solider

Ephialtes, in the action film 300, betrays Leonidas and helps Persian army to win against Spartan group. The author says that he will not justify the actions of Ephialtes. The opening scene of the film projects that Spartans are born to be Solider, and those born with disabilities are rejected. As Ephialtes was born with disabilities, his parents decided to move from Sparta to get him saved. His father was ~~giving~~ training him to become a good Solider as he always wished to serve his nation one day. The day when war

~~breaks~~ breaks out, ephialtes, despite being aware that he would get killed, seeks permission from Leonidas to allow him to join the fight. He just wants to die as a warrior. But, Leonidas refuses to give him permission to fight. After being heart-broken, ephialtes offers his service to the Persian army. He asks Persian army to give him a uniform above all wealth. This shows he did not commit betrayal and always wanted to become a soldier.