Kistan, it is valuable and is mostly practiced. Since it is given importance by Islam itself. As Islam prefers tolerance over war, sovereignty. Muslim wants to achieve the highest rank for tolerance. Due to the prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H)'s tolerance & patience everyone was coerced to love and respect him. He tolerated the persecutions from the Quraysh tribe and even from his relatives. By the dint of his exalted character and tolerance, he conquered the whole Makkah. During his journey, prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) was wounded but he tolerated for the humanity and did not anathematized the rogue boys and chiefs of Taif. The aforementioned story of prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) shows that the importance of tolerance and resistance of war. Similarly, in Quran Allah says that Allah abhors those who do not tolerate and disturb the peace of land. However, the definition of tolerance is quite different in western countries. As they do not believe in tolerance and they refer tolerance the weakness of a person. Therefore, they do not tolerate any thing. Tolerance is very important since it brings prosperity in a society and even in the whole country.

Besides, it has relation with the self contentment and humility. Owing to its good results, mostly people practice it to get inner satisfaction. Else, it halts the major or catastrophic wars in the world. As, it has been noticed that many wars are occurring due to the intolerance. Such as the Sudan war, Russia-Ukraine War, Israel-Hamas War etc. Moreover, it also fetch economic prosperity and increases the whole GDP growth rate. Having a giant economy, the country can boost its relations with the other countries. Owing to strong international relations the country can also boost its investments and bring more & more foreign direct investments in the country. Some countries underestimate the tolerance of any country as Pakistan tolerates the persecutions of Indian or upon the Muslims of Kashmir but India thinks that it is the weakness of Pakistan. However, Pakistan can fight a war but it tolerates it just for the sake of humanity. Since, there are some factors which leads to intolerance that cannot be tolerated in any society. These factors are insulting someone, blasphemy, inequality, misappropriation, ethnocentrism etc. A peaceful society is very crucial for everyone and can be brought by justice, equality, accepting and respecting the other religion & culture, honesty in every sector and eradication of corruption.

Tolerance refers to tolerate any wrong action or word by someone for the sake of maintaining peace in a society. However, it is given different definitions by different people some are of the point of view that it is practiced for the positive things while others say that it is practiced when any bad thing happens to you. As everyone can tolerate positive incidents but the <sup>real</sup> tolerance is to abide persecutions and wrong comments. Since, this will boost personality in a society.

However, the perception of tolerance in the western countries is different from any Muslim or poor country. As, westerners believe that tolerance is the sign of weakness & lack of power. They do not practice it because they think that they have power to control anyone. Contrarily, everyone knows that how they tolerated Hitler to resist WWII. How the <sup>then</sup> Prime Minister of the United Kingdom appeased Hitler to halt the Second World War by giving him Sudetenland through the Munich agreement. So, it indicates that sometime tolerance is necessary to impede war or any other catastrophic so ~~circumstances~~ circumstances.

But the present ministers of the west did not show such tolerance.

In contrast to west, Islam always preach tolerance and the prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) always enjoined to be patient and steadfast. He himself was given persecutions by pagans of Makkah but he never practiced intolerance. He showed his mercy not only upon humans but also upon animals. Even pagans planned to kill prophet (P.B.U.H) but prophet did not fought and migrated to Madinah covertly. Later on, prophet (P.B.U.H) conquered Makkah but did not take revenge from them instead he forgave them who were involved in his beloved uncle's murder. Islam always teaches tolerance and Allah hates the anarchist. Even the former prime minister of the UK Tony Blair said that the tolerance is the defining character of Islam. So, Islam never preached intolerance.

Since tolerance has a lot of advantages and the most crucial advantage is the prosperity. By the virtue of tolerance, the peace of a country would be maintained and this would bring prosperity in that country. Moreover, it will fetch self contentment and humility. Those who are tolerant and patient always are imperturbable. As they

In addition to prosperity, self contentment, it brings peace to a country. Since it is the major cause of dreadful wars in the world. It would help man to negotiate problems & issues rather than waging war or showing <sup>so called</sup> power. It motivates people to refrain from wars which are the major cause of human destruction and annihilation. As, today, many countries are facing the brunt of these wars and are the victims of war.

On the account of peace of a country, the other countries would trade and boost its economy. It has been seen that countries always prefer to trade with those countries which are peaceful and war free. Resultantly the countries GDP growth rate increases and eventually, brings prosperity and progress of the country. As it has been seen that those countries which are not involved in any war have sturdy economy such as China, the United States, the United Kingdom, India etc. on the other hand those countries which are involved in wars and are intolerant are facing sanctions and other capital destruction.

In addition to raising GDP growth rate and peaceful environment, the countries would love to invest in that country. So, it will boost the foreign direct investments in the country which is full of patient people and is peaceful. According to the statistic or the report of UNDP the foreign direct investments of China is 80% and Pakistan 20%, India 30%, the US 70%. This statistics shows that the more the country is peaceful the more the foreign direct investments. Thus those countries are not involve in any war, will not face any difficulty in their economy.

The concept of tolerance <sup>has</sup> always been misinterpreted by some people. As they underestimate the tolerance & combines it with the weakness & lack of power. As many countries underestimate the tolerance and wage war such as India, the US etc.

As there are many factors which lead to intolerance. The first and foremost cause is the injustice as Israel is always doing injustice to Palestine and therefore, she occupied Palestine and caused Genocide in Palestine. Besides, the inequality is another reason of intolerance.

As, it beget the insecurity of a state. The misappropriation and lack of justice in any country lead to intolerance.

Moreover, ethnocentrism, the underestimation of one's own culture or religion, is another cause of intolerance. The religious intolerance is now a days increasing due to the misguidance of the scholars, monks & pandits.

The aforementioned issues can be resolved and tolerance of a society can be bring by equality, justice, honesty, accepting others as a citizen and respecting their religious ceremonies, creed etc. Moreover, the end of
