

Pakistan's fall is not economic, it's moral.

OUTLINE:

A: Introduction:

1. Moral decadence of Pakistan
2. Immoral outlook of every sector of the country
3. Thesis statement: The primary cause of worsening situation of Pakistan is not of economic nature, rather it is the moral deterioration that has hampered the progress of the country. The alarming factors like unchecked corruption, absolute authority, sway from religion, unfunctional educational system, negligent officials, and intolerance etc. are all due to the moral decay. Pakistan will march on the road of progress, if the moral decay is overcome.

B: It is immorality, not economy, that is worsening the state of Pakistan.

1. Lack of Morality is the root cause of all social evils.

- i) Increasing number of street crimes and mob violence.
- ii) Incidents of honor killing^{and} suicidal cases.

2. Immoral officials and statesman are responsible for the decline of the government machinery.

- i) unchecked corruption
- ii) unethical practices like red tapism practiced by government officials.

3. Immorality sparks unjust and unacceptable attitude.

- i) zero-tolerance for others.
- ii) Unjust justice
- iii) Disparity among the center and the units.

4. Sway from religions incites the fall of a nation.

- i) Collapse of religion has made Pakistan a failure.
- ii) Morally unguided life is a useless nation.
- iii) Past examples of immoral nations who suffered a fall.

C: Uplifting the Morality will ultimately uplift the nation in the long-run

1. Morally strong ^{nations} are progressive.

- i) Manners makes a man and ^{moral} man makes a society.
- ii) Glorious Islamic eras guided by the principles of morality.

2. Religious reforms are the guarantee of ^{an} advancement.

- i) Religion is the ultimate guide of a nation
- ii) Religion is the best way to ensure accountability and stimulate the path of progress.

3. Morality uplifts the conscience and controls corrupt practices.

- i) The inner conscience never allows a moral man to do corrupt practices.

D: Way Forward.

Certainly, immorality is the cause of Pakistan's fall. It can be curbed by;

- i) Awakening the inner conscience of the nation.
- ii) Teaching the religious principles.
- iii) Ensuring the concept of accountability of immoral institutions.
- iv) Enhancing the educational front of the nation.
- v) Inculcating tolerance.

E: Conclusion

ESSAY

Prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) has rightly said, "A man without morality is free to do anything." It implies that morality is the prime force controlling the inner conscience and outer actions of a man. Unfortunately, Pakistan is a developing country with worse progress rate. It is primarily due to the moral decadence of the Pakistani nation. From government officials to the common lay man, everyone is indulged in immorality which is hampering the progress of the nation. The primary cause of embarrassing position of Pakistan in the world horizon is because of the moral decline. There are numerous factors like absolute authority, unchecked corruption, sway from religion, departmental negligence and intolerance etc. are all moral concerns that are making Pakistan backward. However, if Pakistan is able to curb the moral decadency, it will definitely lead Pakistan ahead of other nations.

It is considered that an immoral man is free of all obligations and he is not haunted by the accountability. This makes a general rise in the crimes and atrocities in the country. Pakistan is a country in which certain cities, for instance Karachi, are hub of criminal activities. The criminals are unbothered because they lack morality. Also, the practice of mob violence is damaging the image of Pakistan which is purely because of immorality. In Sargodha, a mob brutally attacked two men of other religion without allowing them to explain themselves. Such immoral practices always give ^{birth} to bold actions of breaking the law, killing the innocents and spreading chaos. That is why, Pakistan's fall is moral in nature.

Morality is a ray of hope that shines so powerfully that it eradicates the depression and sadness. In this way, a nation is never plunged into the ditch of depression rather it is always motivated to work tirelessly for the cause of the nation. Unfortunately, Pakistan is lagging behind because people are inclined towards extremism and depression. It is only due to the lack of morality that extreme actions of honor killing are reported everyday from every corner of the country. Moreover, the desire to live and improve the lifestyle has ended and people tend to end their lives. Pakistan is having a high suicide rate. Certainly, it is immorality that is a major factor behind the extreme, depressed and unmotivated nation of Pakistan.

Pakistan is on the verge of destruction because it is ruled by immoral statesman who aims to work on 'Selves' and ignore 'others'. The morally decayed officials are freely indulged in corruption and unfortunately, their corruption always go unchecked. It is rightly said by Lord Acton, "Power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." Pakistan justifies this sayings as it is led by absolute corrupt people who lack morality and work solely for their own cause. Hence, the immoral government officials, rulers, and statesman are the cause of Pakistan's fall.