The essay

"Globalism is not only making threat to human prosperity but also pushing the humans towards loss of lives." undoubtedly, well said by the Bah ki moon about the spread of hyper globalism. Globalism that has reduced the distance among nations and closed the interactions of people. The closeness of globalism has created numerous threats to human prosperity. Firstly, it has increased unemployment, created the clash of cultures, spoiled local businesses and exploited the natural of underdeveloped nations. Besides, the quick interaction of humans has given chances to terrorists to carry out cyber terrorism and terror attacks worldwide. Consequently, the policy of hyper globalism has pushed the humans into pensive sights and loss of happiness. The power of moreover, globalism has contributed in the development of infrastructure. The process of globalism has enabled several companies to invest in the infrastructural development of underdeveloped countries. For instance: in the CPEC Phase 1, the Chinese authorities has invested billions of dollars in the infrastructure sector. Consequently, built roads, buildings, dams and special economic zone (SEZs). These all developments have created jobs and facilities. Thus, individuals have gotten benefits from hyper globalism.

Moreover, globalism has created ways for companies and countries to transfer technology worldwide. This has facilitated humans to use technology in agricultural, infrastructural and medical sectors. Moreover, professionals of every sector have been utilising the transferred technology to achieve objective. This is also creating prosperity because of its benefits. Therefore, the transfer of technology is the provision of globalism.

Moreover, globalism has given chances to humans sharing culture through interactions. The most tremendous feature of hyper globalism is to share culture with diverse persons. One can share one's culture digitally and physically. Also, the process of sharing culture can provide the humans to learn about unknown aspects of every culture. This can able the humans to live happily. Thus, globalism is not threat to human prosperity.

Further, globalism has improved the educational sector. "Education explores happiness and understanding among humans." (John machnios) The globalism of 21st century has made education accessible to everyone. This has provided foreign educational institutions to provide online education to everyone. Institutions like Oxford and Khan Academy have been providing tremendous quality of education worldwide. This has improved the sector of education and has showed right direction of knowledge. Also, empowered humans to come out from traditional classrooms. Therefore, globalism has improved the sector of education that further plays tremendous roles in the spread of happiness.

Also, globalism has provided chances to multi-national companies to provide services in other countries. For instance: McDonald and KFC have been providing enormous services and job chances to individuals. These both provide best services to humans which create the sights of happiness among people. Therefore, hyper globalism is not threat to human prosperity.

Furthermore, globalism has enabled the countries increase the export of natural resources. The countries that face economical downfalls at the same time, the globalism assist to attract foreign investment and ~~op~~ increase export to other countries. Consequently, it saves the nations from crisis and brings happiness. Thus, globalism is not threat human prosperity.

Additionally, globalism has connected humans worldwide. The process of globalism has digitally and physically brought different individuals close. The closeness of humans has been creating sense of unity, prosperity and love among humans. These are the provisions of hyper globalism. Therefore, globalism has created the glee scenarios of happiness.

After having a bird's eye view of the critics stance, now the following passages describe that how globalism has pushed humans into sadness.

Besides, globalism has enable multi-national companies to operate worldwide. These companies have exploited the local businesses. multi-national companies like KFC and McDonald have been exploiting the small businesses of locals. These companies provide every sort of services. On the other hand, the small businesses do not have such capability. Consequently, these local businesses face down fall. Thus, globalism has brought threats to human prosperity.

Also, globalism has exploited the underdeveloped nations. Globalism has given full access to developed nations to invest in underdeveloped countries. For instance: Barrick company which is from Canada has exploited the the 'developing countries. This company has signed agreement with Pakistan on the Req-e-diq project.

Agreement was on the following figures. The Barrick ~~is going to~~ get 50pc share and 20pc share will be given to Pakistan. The project which located in backward province of Pakistan shows the exploitation of the province and its peoples happiness. Thus, globalism has created threats to happiness of humans.

Further, globalism has connected the humans worldwide due to which terrorism pose threat to humans. Since the process of globalism has started crime, violence, bloodshed and cyber terrorism erupted. According to UNSC Report terrorists who have killed more than 1600 Pakistanis between 2022-23 came from Afghanistan in the shape of refugees and businessmen. Besides, digital globalism has empowered terrorism to carry out hybrid war against individuals. Thus, globalism has created threats to human happiness.

In short, globalism which has created connectivity among people of the world created dangerous threats to human happiness. This is reason that humans of one nation ~~is~~ afraid from the another.

All the countries have to introduce such policies which can benefit businesses, interactions, institutions and programmes equally.

The aim of the nations should be honest to work for the benefits of individuals over all rather than some particular individuals.
