

PART-II

PRECIS:

Title: Villian's Side of Story

Author argues that villains are not wrong. He presented an example of a character from film 300, ^{Ephalates,} ^{action} Ephalates. As the opening scene of the film establishes, Spartans are born to be soldiers and not fully developed babies are discarded. Ephalates had a twisted body at birth. His parents decided to flee Sparta, as they did not want their baby to be killed. He spent his life hiding and got training from his father, hoping to become a good soldier to serve the people that rejected him. After becoming one, he met the king of Sparta, Leonidas. Despite knowing that Sparta 300 is on a suicide mission, he begged Leonidas to allow him, as he wanted a noble death. Even after proving his loyalty and good spear skills he got rejected again. He was completely broken and had no where to go, Xerxes offered him all riches he desired if he joins Persian side. He only asked for a uniform as he was never motivated by greed. He did not betray Sparta, as he was never accepted by them.

Words: 174

COMPREHENSION

A1: Patton was considered controversial military figure because of his aggressive tactics and outspoken view.

A2: Patton, according to Axelrod, believed that the Soviet Union posed greater threat to US than Germany, and US should ^{have} focused its efforts on defeating the Soviets.

A3: If Patton had captured Moscow it could have significantly altered the outcome of the war and potentially prevented the Cold War from ever happening.

A4: Contrasting and complimenting sentiments in the task is that some historian criticized Patton for his views, other argue his willingness to think outside the box and challenge conventional wisdom is a valuable lesson for leaders in any field.

A5: Valuable lesson the leaders may infer from the views of Patton is that one should ~~should~~ ^{Carefully} judge who's their real enemy. If you eliminate them at an early stage, it will not create long term problems.

QUESTION - 4

SENTENCE CORRECTION

- i) Arham said that he is not available.
- iii) My Uncle arrived Islamabad yesterday. He will stay here for a week.
- iv) It has been three weeks that I have not seen him.
- v) My grandfather grows tomatoes.
- vii) Summons were served to Naseem on speeding offenses.

QUESTION - 5

PUNCTUATION

Bob excitedly burst into the living room, holding a peculiar gadget. "Honey look what? I bought a robot vacuum cleaner" he exclaimed. His wife Lisa eyed it skeptically, "You spent our savings on that?" "But it'll save us time" Bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, chaos ensued it zoomed around, bumping into walls and furniture sending objects flying. Lisa sighed, "this isn't helping bob!" Sheepishly admitted "Maybe I got carried away." They erupted into laughter, realizing are best cleaned up the old-fashioned, with teamwork and a trusty dustpan.

B- PREPOSITION

- i) He is Under my vigilance.
- iv) He is fond of reading books.
- v) Translate the following text from English to Urdu
- iii) He jumped over the gate.
- vii) He is reluctant to perform his duty.

Q6- PAIRS OF WORDS

i) Antic: Rockstar whose stage antics use to include smashing guitars is now older and wiser.

Antique: My mother likes to collect antiques.

ii) Momentary: The criminal took a momentary pause before confessing his crimes.

Momentous: It was a momentous decision for our family to move overseas.

iii) Compliment: I take it as a compliment when people say I look like my father.

Complement: The music compliments her voice perfectly.

v) Eminent: Mr. Taqi Usmani is an eminent muslim scholar.

Imminent: Government should introduce some imminent policies for the protection of fundamental right.

vi) Immigrant: Illegal immigrants were sent back to their home country.

Emigrant: Few emigrant were on board yesterday.

B- DIALOGUE

Sarah asked John that has he ever thought what career path he wants to pursue after graduation? John replied her that he is torn between going into finance or pursuing a career in technology. Sarah complimented both are great and asked that what interests John about finance? John described he loved analyzing data and predicting markets trends. But technology offers endless opportunities for innovation and a creativity. Sarah agreed ^{to John} that technology is constantly evolving and suggested John that maybe he could combine his interest by working in financial technology. John ~~exclaimed~~ ^{and thanked Sarah} that this is a fantastic idea, it would allow him to leverage his skills in both areas. Sarah welcomed him and advised him to remember to follow his passion.

TRANSLATION

Millionaire

↑ John Jacob Astor was on board when Titanic sank. The money available in his bank account was enough to build 30 Titanic. Despite facing life threatening situation, he did ^{what} ~~want~~ he believed was moral correct and ^{to} ~~save~~ two terrified children, he left his position in life boat.

~~John~~ Isidor Straus, the owner of the largest chain of departmental stores in America, who was also present on Titanic said, "I won't ever ^{enter} the life boat before any other men." His wife Ada Straus, too, refused to get on life boat, instead she gave space to her maid Elton Bird. He decided to spend last moments of her life with her husband. Rich did not compromise their moral principle, which they prioritized over their wealth and lives. ~~Morally, they~~ Their partiality towards morality ^{Sheds light on} ~~defies~~ human discipline and human nature.