THE ESSAY

During the Iran-Iraq War, the Iranian forces captured a group of Iraqi soldiers, and all Iraqi soldiers were executed by the firing squad. All the soldiers died but one soldier survived. He said that when they opened fire on us, my friend covered ~~my~~<sup>my</sup> body and took all the bullets in his body to protect me. Iranian force thought that I was dead so they left me as I was covered with blood. But I am still alive due to my friend's sacrifice. Same as in the relationship of nationals toward their state. If we are morally strong, having loyalty and responsible attitude for our country then we can definitely save our country's prosperity just like the Iraqi soldier that saved his friend's life.

"That economics is untrue which ignores or disregards moral values."

— M. Gandhi —

This quote further highlights the importance of moral values for the country's prosperity. Because if we have moral values then there is justice, equality, transparency, accountability and well being of each and every individual that in return reflects in our country's development and economic progress. But, unfortunately, Pakistan is facing immorality in almost every sector including bureaucracy, media, judiciary, military, sports, educational, health care institutes and even nationals that leads to instability and economic uncertainty. We should definitely ponder over it and correct our moral values individually otherwise our society will suffer.

First comes bureaucrat that shows immorality through many ways, one of them is corruption. We see corruption cases of our bureaucrats one after another in our newspapers. One recent example is Government secretary of Balochistan, convicted in a corruption case. Another example is of Deputy Commissioner Islamabad, involved in Ring road scandal. Furthermore, abuse of power is also very common in our bureaucrats. They considered themselves above law and can do whatever they want to do. In same fashion, these authorities use delay tactics commonly called red tapism to show sheer apathy towards the interest of common man. Public is of no value for them. They just want to fulfill their desires. NO interest for public and welfare of state. Through these morally corrupt officers, our society suffers alot.

Next comes Media, which is considered as fourth pillar of state. It's importance can be understood by the Jim Morrison's quote.

"Whoever controls the media, controls the mind."

That Media is shaping the minds of citizens and thus shaping the future of country. But, Unfortunately our media shows immorality which leads to social destruction. Yellow journalism is quite famous in Pakistan to attract the readers and increase their ratings. Our anchors don't care to give well-researched and factual news. In addition, <sup>some</sup> anchors show biasness towards one political party and framing the public's opinion by showing false statements. They can't even resist to manipulate the data. Like, in recent, General Elections 2024, manipulated data was showed. As votes of candidates changed overnight. Similarly, protests, social gatherings are not covered by journalists to break the influence of one party over public. As a result, people lost their trust in these immoral persons and ~~that~~ it has negative impact on society.

Apart from above mentioned departments, judiciary also reflects immorality that equally contribute in our instability and poor economy. Their decisions are influenced by ruling elites. As in past, Maulvi Tameez-ud-din case, in which Chief Justice of Pakistan Muhammad Munir, along with other four judges, declared dissolution of judges' legislative assembly by Governor General, legally valid. Still, we ~~had~~ saw late night opening of Islamabad High Court and Supreme Court offices on April 9. Nothing change. In addition, the delay in the dispensation of justice that our courts show sheer apathy to deliver the common citizens of Pakistan. This delay is so heinous ~~that~~ by some judges that they are not even ashamed of it. Public is considered inferior as it was found in relent execution of the announced. Mazhar Humsain was hanged in Adiala jail two years before the Supreme court announced him innocent. This kind of morality should ~~not~~ not be acceptable at all. This unjust behaviour leads to destruction of society and country in large.
