

ENGLISH (PRECIS AND COMPOSITION)

TALHA SARFRAZ KHAN

OB-59

Question # 04:-

(iii) Next Saturday my nephew do a party

Next Saturday, my nephew is having a party

(v) My grandfather grows ups tomato-

My grandfather grows tomatoes-

(i) Arham" said he is not available

Arham said he is unavailable.

(ii) My uncle arrived to Islamabad yesterday. He stay here for a week

My uncle arrived in Islamabad yesterday -

He is staying here for a week

(iv) It is three weeks that I don't see him -

I have not seen him in three weeks -

It is three weeks that I have not seen him -

Question # 05

(part b)

- (iii) He jumped over the gate
- (iv) He is fond of reading books.
- (v) Translate the following text from English into Urdu -
- (vii) He is reluctant to perform his duty.
- (ii) She died of corona.

(part a) - Punctuation

Bob excitedly burst into the living room holding a peculiar gadget, "Money, look what I bought, A Robot Vacuum Cleaner", He exclaimed. His wife Lisa eyed it skeptically, "You spent our savings on that but it will save us time". Bob argued as the robot whirred to life chaos ensued it zoomed around bumping into walls and furnitures sending objects flying. Lisa sighed "This is not helping," Bob sheepishly admitted, "Maybe I got carried away". They erupted into laughter realizing some messes are best cleaned up the old-fashioned way — with teamwork and a trusty dusterpan.

Question # 06
(part a)

(vi) Draught

Feeling overheated, we welcomed the cool draught from the Air Conditioner

Drought

Farmers struggled to keep their crops alive during ~~this~~ the drought -

(vii) Compliment

I received many compliments on my research paper

Complement

The lighting complemented the colors on the walls -

(viii) Faint

He fainted after standing in the sun for too long -

Feint

The football player made a feint to the left before swiftly dribbling past the defender.

(vi) Immigrant

I became an immigrant when I moved to Europe from Pakistan.

Emigrant

Many emigrants left Europe in the late 19th century to overcome poverty.

(i) Antic

I could not help but laugh at my cat's playful antics.

Antique

They inherited an antique from her grandfather.

Q#6 - (Part b)

Sarah and John are having a discussion about the career paths for him in the future - John is confused about whether to pursue career in Finance or technology - He is a little tilted towards Finance because of his interest and passion in ~~an~~ data analysis and predicting market trends - whereas he ~~knows~~ is certain about the countless opportunities technology provides - On this, Sarah agrees with John's stance and suggests him to combine his interests by pursuing a career in Financial Technology - John likes this idea because he believes he can enhance both of his desired skills in Financial Technology and thanks Sarah - In the end, Sarah reminded John to follow his passion -

Question # 07:-

Translation:-

Millionaire

John Jacob Astor IV was in the Titanic when it sank. The money in his bank account was enough to make ~~30~~ thirty Titanics. Although, facing the danger, he did what he thought was morally right and left his space in the boat for two frightened kids - Isidor Straus, who was the owner of America's largest store "Macy's" was also in the Titanic. He said, "I will not enter in the life boat before other men" - His wife Ida Straus also denied going in the life boat and gave her space to her servant Allen Board - She decided to spend last moments with her husband - These wealthy rich people did not compromise on their morality rather they preferred to sacrifice their lives - Right to ethical sanctions is the essence of choice & and freedom - Awareness and adherence to the values of nature refine the human character -

QUESTION # 03:-

Question #01:-

General George S. Patton earned a controversial reputation in American military history due to his aggressive tactics and outspoken nature - It was Patton's outspoken views, particularly his belief that the US had defeated the wrong enemy in World War II, advocating for a direct push to Moscow instead.

This is mentioned on various online and offline sources, adding to his complex legacy as a military leader.

Question #02:-

Yes, the perspective of Patton according to Alan Axelrod was justified because, according to Axelrod, Patton argued - that US should have focused its efforts on defeating the Soviets than the Nazis, considering the Soviets as more dangerous and long-term threat to US-

Question #03

Michael Peck wrote an article in 2015 in the National Interest titled "What if Patton Had Captured Moscow?". In this he discussed a hypothetical scenario in which Patton had pushed all the way to Moscow. Peck wrote this would not have been an easy task but if that would have happened then "US would not only have altered the outcome of the war but prevented the cold war from happening".

Question #04

The contrasting sentiments mentioned in the passage revolve around General Patton's belief that US defeated the wrong enemy in WWII - This point of view contrast with the conventional understanding of World War II where Nazis were defeated - On the other hand, an article "What If Patton Had Captured Moscow" compliments his belief by considering the potential implications of such a move -

Question # 05

Multiple valuable lessons the leaders may infer from General Patton's views is the significance of "critical thinking" and "challenging conventional wisdom." His wisdom to question the prevailing narrative of World War II and consider alternative strategies demonstrates the value of thinking outside the box and exploring unconventional approaches. Leaders can learn from Patton's life by not being afraid to challenge the norms and exploration of new ideas -

QUESTION # 02

Precis Title:

Ephialtes: A Tale of Rejection and Redemption in "300"

Precis:

The passage explores the character of Ephialtes character in the film "300", challenging his portrayal as a villain - Ephialtes, born with physical is spared from Spartan tradition by his parents, who flee to sparta with him - Despite his rejection by spartan society, Ephialtes trains to become a soldier, hoping to serve his people - When he seeks to join Leonidas and the 300, he is rejected due to his physical limitations - Feeling rejected once, again, Ephialtes turns Xerxes not out of greed but in search of acceptance - His request for a uniform from Xerxes are portrayed

___ 1 ___ 1202 11

Day: _____

as understandable along with wealth and power ; underscores his true desire for recognition and belonging -
