

OB = 59.

JANBAZ KHAN.

"Ephialtes from Movie 300"

The writer replied to a question, In what movie was the villain actually right? He replied that Ephialtes from movie 300. He defeated Spartans after leaving them and joined Persians. The writer argue that his actions were understandable. As, the opening of the movie shows that any child with slight imperfection were to be discarded and not allowed to join army. Ephialtes was supposed to be one of them due to his imperfect body. But his father took him away. Ephialtes spend whole life in training, wants to serve his people who reject him. Finally, he goes to Leonidas and told them his story, and he requests them to allow him to join 300. He was ready to accept the death and to earn his father's armour. But he was rejected due to his inability to raise shield. Upon rejection he joined Xerxes. They along with wealth gave him uniform, he desired the most. He never betrayed; rather, not accepted by his people.

Q3:

Q1) Why was Patton considered a controversial military figure?

Patton was considered a controversial military figure because of his aggressive tactics, and outspoken views. He believed the United States has defeated wrong enemy in World War II, they should have pushed straight into Moscow. This thought moulding perspective made him a controversial military figure.

Q2) Was the perspective of Patton according to Alan Axelrod justified?

The perspective of Patton according to Alex ~~Atemford~~ Alexrod was justified. Because Patton believed that Soviet Union posed greater threat to United States. The Soviet Union was a threat to American freedom and democracy. Therefore, on the ground of threat to Soviet Union posed to US, the perspective of Patton was justified.

5) What would have happened if Patton had captured Moscow?

According to Michael Beck, if Patton had captured Moscow, it would have significantly changed the course of war. It would also result in potential elimination of Soviet threat and avoided Cold War.

6) Describe the contrasting and complimentary sentiments in the text?

The Complimentary Sentiments in the text is that according to Alan Alexrod, Patton believed that US should have defeated Soviet union in World War II. This would have eliminated the greater threat to United States. Michael Peck has also presented same thought that if US had conquered Moscow, it would have prevented Cold War. Contrasting feature was that some historians do not stand by Patton's view about attack on Moscow; rather, than defeated Germany and Japan.

25) Is there any valuable lesson the leaders may infer from views of Patton?

The leaders can infer a lesson from Patton views. The leader must think out of the box before entering in a war. Sometimes attacking and dismantling one enemy by support of other can give rise to a bigger enemy. In case of United States, after attacking Axis powers it fought a long cold war against Soviet union. Therefore, the world leader must assess the outcome of the war and alliance during war.

- Q4)
- i) Arham said he was not available.
 - ii) Next Saturday my nephew have a party.
 - iii) My uncle arrived to Islamabad yesterday. He will stay here for a week.
 - iv) It is three weeks that I haven't seen him.
 - v) My grandfather grow tomato.
-
-

Q5. Answers:

(A)

Bob, excitedly, burst into the living room holding a peculiar gadget. Honey well! What I bought, a robot vacuum cleaner, he exclaimed. His wife, Lisa, eyed it skeptically. You spent our saving on that. But it'll save us time, Bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, chaos ensued, it zoomed around bumping into walls and furniture sending objects flying. Lisa, sighed, this isn't helping. Bob, sheepishly, admitted, maybe I got carried away. They erupted into laughter, realizing some messes are best cleaned up the old fashioned way - with teamwork and a trusty dustpan.

Q8

(B) Answers:

i) He is under my vigilance.

ii) She died of corona.

iii) He jumped over the gate.

iv) He is fond of reading books.

v) Translate the following text from English into Urdu.

16.

A) Answer:

ii) Draught. During Spring draught have very soothing effect.

Drought. The Sub-Saharan Africa is going through severe drought.

i) Eminent. The chief minister belongs to an eminent family.

Imminent. Due to imminent security risks, the government has closed the schools.

i) Immigrant. The Pakistani immigrants were warmly welcomed by Saudi Arabian people.

Emigrant The emigrants leave Pakistan were sad to leave their family.

vii) Compliment Ali Compliment his wife.

Complement Thieves were complemented by security guard in last year bank robbery.

(B) Answers:

Sarah greeted John and asked wheather he had thought about career path ~~for~~ he wanted to pursue after graduation. John replied that he was torn between opting finance or pursuing a career in technology. Sarah replied that both were good options and inquired what interested him about finance? John replied that He loved analyzing data and predicting market trends. But on the other hand, technology offered endless opportunities for innovation and creativity.

Sarah agreed that technology is evolving and maybe he can combine his interests by working in financial technology?

John thanked Sarah for the amazing idea and said that it will allow him to leverage his skills in both areas. Sarah advised John that just remember to follow his passion.

Q7: Translations

The millionaire, Jacob Easter, was on board when Titanic sank.

His bank balance was enough to buy 30 Titanic ships. While facing the life threatening event, he opted the option which he considered morally correct, and left his place for a child in life saving boat.

The co-owner of the biggest American-Chinese departmental store, Asdor Straum, Maisses, who was on Titanic said: "I will not enter the life saving boat before other men". His wife, Aida Straum, also refused to board life saving board, and gave her place to her maid, Elen Bird. She decided to spend last moments of her life with her husband. These wealthiest people; rather, than compromising on their moral principles; sacrificed their life and wealth. Their stands for moral ethics alleviates the human nature and human civilization.