

Q2

5/20

OB-60

Date:

Title: - The Tragic Betrayal of Ephialtes

Possible Titles

"Ephialtes: The Tragic Hero of 300"

The Tragic Journey of Ephialtes: A Betrayal or a Quest for Acceptance?

Unveiling Ephialtes: The Misunderstood Antagonist of 300

The author depicts the character Ephialtes, portrayed as the antagonist in "300", who aids the Persians against Leonidas & the Spartans. It is the tragic backstory of Ephialtes that governed his future actions. Born deformed, saved by loving parents from Spartan cruelty. Later on, trained in warfare & combat with his only aspiration in life to serve Sparta. Despite his aspiration he faced rejection due to physical ^{disability} deformation. At this time his desire is acceptance, not greed, which causes him to change ^{allegiance} allegiance to Xerxes. His betrayal in the context of Spartan rules make him a tragic figure that is driven by rejection & the pursuit of acceptance.

Idea of "Persian Army's offer, which he accepts only for army's uniform" is missed

General Instructions

- Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
- Your passage reflect the original idea
- Don't take direct sentences from the passage
- It is not the narration do precis
- Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Q³

9/20

In composition answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer Date:
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

Q¹/1- Patton was considered controversial due to his aggressive tactics & outspoken views. His belief that the United States fought the wrong enemy in World War II, advocating for a focus on defeating the Soviet Union over Nazi Germany, stirred debate & criticism.

Q²/1- According to Alan Axelrod's perspective in "Patton: A Biography", Patton's belief that the United States prioritize should have been the Soviet Union over Nazi Germany was justified. Axelrod argues that Patton saw the Soviet Union as a greater long-term threat to American interests, Freedom & Democracy.

Q³/1- If Patton had captured Moscow, it could have potentially altered the outcome of World War 2, & prevented the Cold War from occurring. Micheal Park, in his article "What if Patton Had Captured Moscow?" for the National Interest, explores the hypothetical scenario & suggests that it could have had significant implications for the post-war global politics.

Prince

Q⁴ 1.- The text presents contrasting views on Patton's perspective. Some historians criticize him for his unconventional views, while others see value in his willingness to challenge conventional wisdom. However, both perspectives acknowledge the thought-provoking nature of Patton's beliefs & their potential impact on historical outcomes.

First Attack on Strong Opponents then attack on Weak Opponents

Q⁵ 1.- Leaders can infer a valuable lesson from Patton's willingness to challenge conventional thinking. The importance of critical analysis & strategic foresight. Patton's perspective encourages leaders to question assumptions & consider alternative strategies, even if they are controversial or unconventional. This willingness to Prince think outside box can lead to innovative solutions & a deeper understanding of complex issues.

Date: _____

Q⁴

9/10

ii) Next Saturday my nephew is having a party.

iii) My uncle arrived in Islamabad yesterday. He will stay here for a week.

iv) It has been three weeks since, I did not see him.

v) My grandfather grows tomatoes.

vi) If Waseem won the lottery, he would travel a lot.

105

4/5

Date: _____

Good

Bob excitedly burst into the living room, holding a peculiar gadget. "Honey, look what I bought, a robot vacuum cleaner!" he exclaimed. His wife, Lisa, eyed it skeptically. "You spent our savings on that?" she questioned. "But it'll save us time!"

Bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, chaos ensued. It zoomed around, bumping into walls & furniture, sending objects flying. Lisa sighed, "This isn't helping." Bob sheepishly admitted, "Maybe I got carried away." They erupted into laughter, realizing some messes are best cleared up the old-fashioned way - with teamwork & a trusty dustpan.

Q5
B

4/5

Date: _____

i) He is ~~under~~ my vigilance.

ii) She died of ~~corona~~.

iii) He jumped ~~over~~ the gate.

iv) He is fond of ~~reading~~ books.

v) Translate the following ~~text from~~ English INTO ~~Hindi~~ Hindi.

Q5
A

5/5 Good

i) Antic:-

The clown's antic were loved by the children at the party.

Antique:-

I inherited an Antique watch from my grand parents.

ii)

Draught
The village well was old and draught of water.

Prince

Date: _____

Drought:-

The drought is effecting crop production of this year.

iii) Quaint:-

They lived in a Quaint cottage just over by the lake.

Queen:-

In western society being Queen is normal & safe.

iv) Momentary:-

A momentary lapse in judgement can be fatal in battle.

Momentous.

The Saudi-Iran peace talks are a momentous occasion in world politics.

v) Eminent

He is a Eminent Scientist famous for his work

Imminent

Death is the Imminent truth for all living things.

Prince

105
3

3/5

Sarah asked John if he had considered his career path after graduation. John replied that he was torn between finance & technology. John expressed his love for analyzing data & predicting market trends. However, he also mentioned the allure of technology, which offers endless opportunity for innovation & creativity. Sarah agreed that technology is always evolving & suggested combining his interests by working in financial technology. John found the idea fantastic as it would allow him to leverage his skills in both areas. He thanked Sarah for the suggestion to which she replied that he should always follow his passion.

107

5/10

When the Titanic sank it was carrying millionaire John Jacob Astor, Charles B. M. Widener, and Benjamin Guggenheim. His bank account had more than enough money to build 30 more Titanics. However, when faced with certain death, he chose to do the morally correct decision & gave his spot on the life boat to two orphaned children to save their lives. Stewart Straw the co-owner of "Macy's" the largest departmental store chain in America, who was also on the Titanic said that he would not never enter the life boat before other men. His wife Eda Straw also refused to ride on the life boat & instead gave her spot to her servant Ellen Bied. She decided to spend the last moments of her life with her husband. These rich individuals did not compromise on their moral values & ~~instead~~ choose to give up their wealth & their lives instead. ~~These~~ In the context of ethical characteristics these people are ^{golden} examples of human culture & human nature.

Prince

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word.