This quote shows importance of moral values that how much moral values are essential for humans. Moral values plays important role in every aspect of life e.g. ^{from} governance to grass root level. Pakistan is also facing difficulties to maintain its states due to lack of decline in moral values. Pakistan's downfall is not economic, its moral because ~~for~~ declining in the moral values such as truth, freedom, honesty, respect for human rights, forgiveness, justice, tolerance etc. which lead Pakistan downfall example ~~gratia~~ corruption, bribery, judicial activism, lack of sincerity towards one's rights and duties, lack of rule of law implementation etc. These imigrate solutions are demonstration of morality & values by leaders, strengthening existing institution, sanction and reinforcement, rule of law implementation, feeling of honesty and prosperity in one's heart.

By definition moral are the principles of behavior necessary for protecting life and societies. For building better societies moral values plays vital role in it. Moral values include truth, freedom, honesty, respect for human rights, forgiveness, justice, tolerance etc. These are essential element & building block of better society. Unfortunately, these moral values are declining but in which causes major severe issues in world the Pakistan it is damaging basis of its society. There are many causes affecting Pakistan progress.

First of all

Westernization is one of the major cause that is affecting Pakistan's progress because people of Pakistan are becoming more addicted to western culture. Netflix or is the major means of promoting western culture in Pakistan. Secondly, poor parenting is also causing lack of moral values which ~~leads~~ major hurdle in Pakistan's progress. Parents don't spend ^{quality} time with children that impact on child health psychologically and their results appears later on.

Thirdly, technology and social media also contributed in lacking moral value in Pakistan.

People become too much dependent on phone. Spend a lot of time using social media apps such as WhatsApp, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram etc. It reduces mutual communication among people and have very bad impacts on people's health, mentally, physically and psychologically.

Fourthly, Family disorganization is also a major hurdle in Pakistan's progress. Family plays a very important role in formation of good personality of person. Unfortunately, when parents took divorce or separate from each other it impact child health badly and later on showed in severe consequences. Last but not the least, lacking effective moral instruction causing hinder in the progress of Pakistan.

Because there are no moral counseling institution that can guide people and motivate them about moral values. It is very necessary to have information/guidelines about moral values to build nation. These are causes that is affecting Pakistan's progress. There effects are very severe. Those causes are affecting as decline in the moral values and increasing more problems in the way of Pakistan Progress.

To begin with, corruption because it is one of major cause that it is affecting Pakistan progress. Corruption is done in the masters level and grass root level. We there have are many examples out their in which famous political leader are involved in corruption cases e.g; Nawaz Sharif, Shahbaz Sharif et any many others. It is being carried out on the grass root level where people do their works on corrupt paractices. In addition, Judicial activism is prevailing problem in the progress of Pakistan. Supreme Court Judges are pressurised on favourable decision making. They are threatened by people who have power and finalise decision according to their choices. Judges favoritism also contributes to decline in progress of Pakistan. Judges are not playing their role an role of law. Moreover, bribery is also contributing to damage the progress of Pakistan. People become used to bribery like it is normal thing and they can do it legally. It's only because of lack of moral values. Moreover, there is extreme violation of rule of law from powerful to middle class person. No body obeys the rule of law. Rules are made to be followed but if they are not followed by the people any nation can fall severely. Pakistan's constitution is filled with rules and regulation but unfortunately, there is no implementation on those rules. Additionally, lacking moral values affect country's development. For the development and proper growth of country they must have moral values of doing hard work, making ~~doing~~ efforts and prosperity for the well being of country. But unfortunately, these moral values are lacking in Pakistan which is causing its downfall.
