A report by McKinsey Global Institute found that if women were to participate in economy at the same rate as men, the Global GDP would increase by 26%. Women can play a better role in increasing country economy if they attain jobs in various fields. Like this the participation in labour force increase in Pakistan in recent years. It is a remarkable achievement in the way of achieving gender equality. According to ILO ^(model) estimate that the labour participation of women in Pakistan in 1990 is 13.95% and 21.9% in 2024. It is a positive trend in Pakistan because women gain more chances to come out their houses and do work. Hence it will play a role in gender equality because women and men both work in a society for their ~~and~~ living standards improvement.

Legal landscape of Pakistan ^{has} also improved and plays ^{a crucial} role towards the gender equality ^{settlement}.

A good legal system is necessary for giving the protection to the citizens of a country. The citizens work for the welfare of country and state, in return they need protection regardless of gender discrimination.

Pakistan's women protected by the legal system through various laws. Domestic Violence Act 2009, for the protection of domestic violence against the women. Acid Control and Acid

Crime Prevention Act 2010, this law provide protection against acid attacks and impose severe punishment for the acid attacks. Furthermore, many articles also passed for protection of women.

The patriarchal society stops girls to taking part in the male dominant society. According to a dawn newspaper published in October 2, 2023 a group of charabagh resident and some prayer leader intervened to halt a women Cricket match at charbagh District. Ayesha Ayaz that had taken an initiative to arrange a match among girls. Before starting the game, a religious group come, they shouting and said it is immodest for girls to play in open ground. Such cases still exist in various areas of Pakistan. Moreover, when a young girls. tries to take part in social activities. she face various type of criticism. It become a trend to discourage the women who take part, or do job. Therefore, above mention explanation shows social or cultural norm is
