

Pakistan's fall is not Economic its Moral.

outline.

1. Introduction

- 1.1. Hook
- 1.2 Background information / General statement / supporting sentence.
- 1.3 Thesis statement: Pakistan's decline is driven not by economic mismanagement but it's the country deep-seated moral failures/issues such as widespread corruption, unethical leadership, ~~exo-erosion~~ erosion of social values, Decline of education.

2. Main Body

A Moral fall of Pakistan / How Pakistan's fall is Moral

2.1 Corruption

- 2.1.1 Lack of accountability in institutions
- 2.1.2 Normalization of unethical behaviour.
- 2.1.3 Loss of social cohesion

2.2 Unethical Leadership

- 2.2.1 Abuse of power
- 2.2.2 Nepotism and favoritism
- 2.2.3 Mismanagement and incompetence.

2.3 Decline of education

- 2.3.1 Lack of moral education

2.4 Erosion of social values

- 2.4.1 Treating opponents as devils
- 2.4.2 Increased focus on short-term gains.

3. Ways to rise again morally as well as Economically

- 3.1 Promoting education and critical thinking

3.2 - strict adherence to the moral principle in all walks of life

3.3 Encouraging media to promote positive role models and moral messages.

4. Conclusion

Too short

The Essay.

"Pakistan's moral decline is a warning sign that nation is losing its moral mooring and its sense of direction" (critical thinkers).

The downfall of a country is neither a new issue nor it's a fully settled one. Developing countries are dealing with it successfully. whereas, underdeveloped countries are still struggling. unfortunately, Pakistan is one of them. Pakistan downfall is not driven by economic mismanagement but it's the country deep seated moral failure, such as, widespread corruption, unethical leadership, erosion of social values, decline of education. These causes are not new in nature but their intensity is far greater in Pakistan. These issues or failures are not descended from heaven but they are man-made which are hindering the progress of country. so, serious and honest efforts are needed to solve these failures.

To begin with the reasons that leads to the moral decay fall of Pakistan; morally, firstly, widespread Corruption has lead pakistan's fall. without accountability, institutions and their leaders can are abusing their powers. for example, in government depeartment, political institution, hospitals, judiciary, public sector enterprises, ~~and~~ education sectors.

