Question No: 2

6/20

Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Title: Ephialtes of "300": A Tragic Figure in Spartan Society

The passage reevaluates Ephialtes' action in the film "300", arguing that his betrayal of Leonidas and alignment with the Persians is not a simple act of villainy but a consequence of a lifetime of rejection and longing for acceptance. Born with physical deformities in Spartan Society, Ephialtes is spared death by his parents but faces perpetual exclusion. Despite his fervent desire to serve his people and join the 300, he is ultimately rejected by Leonidas due to his physical limitations.

(2)
Ephialtes' subsequent alignment with Xerxes is portrayed as a desperate quest for belonging rather than mere opportunism. His story highlights the consequences of Spartan society and the tragic consequences of systematic deflection, rather than malevolence.

Question: 5.

A. Punctuate the following passage:

Bob excitedly burst into the living room, holding a peculiar gadget. "Money, look what I bought! A robot vacuum cleaned!" he exclaimed. His wife, Lisa, eyed it skeptically. "You spent our savings on that?" "But it'll save up time," Bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, chaos ensued; it zoomed around, bumping into walls and furniture, sending objects flying. Lisa sighed, "This isn't helping." Bob sheepishly admitted, "Maybe I got carried away." They erupted into laughter, realizing some messes are the best cleaned up the old-fashioned way — with teamwork and a trusty old dustpan.
