

Name = Sameera Aziz

Batch = OB 60

Date = 31 May 2024

Pakistan's fall is not economic, it's moral.

Outline

1. Introduction

1.1 Attention Grabber/~~Hook~~

1.2 General statements/~~Background~~

1.3 Thesis: The decline of Pakistan is not entirely due to economic factors but mainly due to the ~~moral~~ degradation.

2. Main Body

2.1 Corruption and embezzlement

2.2 Discrimination on the basis of gender and religion

2.3 Nepotism and end of meritocracy

2.4 Debyed Justice

2.5 Wealth accumulation through illegal means

2.6 Paid news and ~~misinformation~~

2.7 Lack of freedom of speech

2.8 Absence of ~~accountability~~

3. Conclusion

3.1 Summary and concluding points

Too short
Make it brief

The Essay

When the Great Wall of China was constructed, the attacks from the invaders also increased. Everytime, the invaders arrived the gate, they would give bribe to the gatekeepers. As a result, the gates were opened without any resistance. This clearly shows strong defects do not guarantee strong offense or protection from the outer threats. It is always the moral standing and character of individuals that make the foundation of nations strong. So the individual's immorality can be seen as the cause of a nation's fall. The decline of Pakistan is not merely due to economic but mainly due to the moral degradation. Pakistan's situation is getting worse day by day and the reason is clear the immoral activities of Pakistani. Therefore, this essay would prove the veracity of the statement that Pakistan's fall is not economic, it's moral by the arguments that highlights the stance.

At First, the corruption and embezzlement in politics, public funds, judicial system,

Date: _____

Day: _____

educational institutes and health institutes
Political corruption in Pakistan is characterized by widespread bribery and embezzlement. Bribery is one of the most pervasive forms of corruption in Pakistan. It is common in all fields. From higher to lower rank, every officer when got opportunity took bribe. This immoral practice prioritizes the personal gain over common good. The striking example is the Panama Papers Scandal. In 2016, the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists (ICIJ) released the documents about offshore financial properties of high profile ~~paper~~ people. This includes the ~~the~~ Prime Minister of Pakistan. Continuous corruption erodes public trust and divert resources from essential services, resulting in inadequate infrastructure, poor healthcare and education. Embezzlement is another immoral act that lead to Pakistan's fall. Several scandals have involved the embezzlement of public funds in projects. Corruption is Pakistan significantly leads to the decline.