

Name: Ahmad Hassan

Batch: 135

LMS-ID: 33333

Question #1.

There is no difference between human beings' fear ~~and~~ of death and children's fear of darkness, both are triggered by the stories they heard about death and darkness.

Question #2.

The sacred and religious view of death is when one take it as a gateway for entering into another world.

Question #3.

Monks described death as ~~pain~~ punishment of sins ~~and~~ through physical ~~parabodily~~ harms acted upon.

Question #4.

~~Even~~ In seneca views, death itself not donot frighten people but the ~~process~~ rituals, customs and grieves of friends and relatives, and appearance of deadbody, cumulative impact of these make death scary.

Question #5.

The death appears more horrible because of customs performed, bereavement of friends and relatives and bodily appearance of dead body all factors mutually enhance the atrocities of death.