

Precis

Author states pragmatic opinion towards the possibility of peace. These are multiple factors related to peace possibility in new war front. Now great powers maintain large forces and determined to use them in case of war. Nuclear weapons are now more potent than in WWII. Nuclear chemical can be transmit in all parts of world through various routes and huge money is spent on them in order to ensure they are not used for war. All these are very effective source of <sup>bringing</sup> peace. People regards law and nuclear disarmament as impractical unless world leaders adopt not self-examination attitude. Nevertheless, more essential for all individuals, who desire peace, is assessment of their "self" <sup>thinking</sup> that peace attitude. A created solved attitude for all.

News Section

Recently, a controversy aroused during book fair in Lahore. As, rather than focusing attention on books and literary activities, these were many stalls, where food, drinks and other illiterate goods were kept on selling, which undermined the actual purpose of fair. Many participants expressed disappointment and felt that "the book fair have become a bazaar of goods", where less space and attention was given to books, writers and literary dialogues. During this fair, owing to intense emphasize on food stalls, rather than on reading and purchase of books. A discussion initiated that whether this event was fulfilling its literary purpose or mere profiting trade benefits.
