

Noa test

① What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans:- A man is afraid of death by hearing the horrible stories of a dying person. While children's <sup>have</sup> are afraid of darkness because they also heard the stories of ghosts and thieves.

② What is a religious and sacred view of death?

Ans:- When a person thinks of a death as a means of an entry to another world and is ashamed of his sinful deeds. Then this view of death is religious and sacred.

③ What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Ans:- Monks in their books usually add up the view of death as more horrible. They portray the infliction of pain on themselves as a mean of self-purification and the process of salvation. This in turn increases the fear among people which makes them fear of death.

④ What are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans:- In the views of Seneca, he described that people fear of death exorbitantly when they watch circumstances and rituals that are performed around them. The horrible view of a dead person and the people weeping around him makes the scene more agonizing.

⑤ What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans:- When a dead person is ~~scene~~ seen during his dying process, his body's posture become changing. His face became pale or yellowish with no blood at all. His friends and family move in front of his body. That similarly, that mourning clothes puts extra fear among the people surrounding him. Such facts makes the view of a death more horrible.

1234 5678