

Test

Hadia Zehra 369

Question No 1:

The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that ^{the} fear of darkness of kids is amplified when they hear stories of ghost and thieves. Whereas, the fear of human being is increased when they hear stories about the agony of dying man.

Question 2:

A person is taking religious and sacred view of death when he considers death as a kind of punishment for the sins that he has committed and looks upon death as a way of entering into another world.

Question 3:

The painful experiences described by the Monks in their books are physical tortures which they inflict upon themselves as a form of self-purification.

Question 4:

The Roman Philosopher, Seneca is of the view that circumstances and ceremonies of death scares people more than death itself would do.

Question No 5:

The facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise are the groans of a dying man, convulsions of the body of dying man, his bloodless and pale face, weeping of his friends, mourning clothes worn by relatives and other rituals.