

370

Hassan

i)

The fear that a child has from darkness is based upon the superstitious stories while the fear of human is based upon the eternal rules of nature that are ultimately realistic.

(ii)

Religious and scared view of death is that a human being remain afraid of punishment after the final day of judgement. He remains scared for the sin he has committed.

(iii)

Monks have described in written books that death is indescribably agonizing, includes physical tortures and pain. All these things were experienced by monks while self purification.

(iv)

Seneca claims that the circumstances and ceremonies of death are more frightening than the death. According to him a dying man is heard uttering groans his body is seen undergo convulsions.

(v)

Facts that make death more horrible are a dying man is heard uttering groans; his body is seen undergoing convulsions; his face appears to be absolute bloodless and pale; at his death his friends began to weep and his relations put on mourning clothes and various rituals are performed.