

Question 02

Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

The Imperative of peace in Nuclear Age

In an era of overwhelming nuclear capabilities, total war is senseless, given the catastrophic impact of nuclear weapons that could devastate all life and future generations. Though vast resources are spent in nuclear stockpiles to deter war, this approach to peace is inefficient. Instead, true approach to peace is rational pursuit by rational mind. Author argues that peace is unattainable until other nations change, but we must first examine and shift our own attitudes. The belief that peace is impossible is dangerous and leading to resignation to war. However, since our problems are man-made, solutions are within human control. Peace is achievable by inspiring collective progress towards it.

→ Total word ⇒ 349

→ Limitation ⇒ 117

→ Passage ⇒ 117

Question no: 03

QNO 1 → what is drought and what is the its consequences.

Answer:

Drought condition is commonly known as extreme dryness in weather condition due to low rainfall that lead water scarcity. In the end stream and river dried up and livestock died because of dehydration and crop has destroyed.

QNO:2 Does writer endorse the popular saying about the red sky?

ANSWER:

No, writer does not endorse these saying. The writer mention that saying a red sky at sunset (night) indicate fair weather and clear skies for next day and the red sky in sunrise (morning) indicated the extreme weather condition. However, sometimes correct but more often incorrect, implying skepticism towards them.

Q No: 3 Is weather forecasting a science, if so, what is it called?

Answers:

Yes! weather forecasting considered as a science and commonly known as meteorology.

Q No: 4 Why is it not easy to forecast the weather?

Answers:

Forecast the weather is not easy because there is many different aspect included in it, and each aspect need insightful studied for accurate and fair weather forecast.

Q No: 5 How would the moon help the people in forecasting weather?

Answers:

In ancient periods when meteorology was not existed, people thought that moon controlled weather. Luna held lot of water especially when waxing crescent appear.

Question no 4

- 1) The priest joined the bride and groom in holy wedlock.
- 2) Allen Turing was a scholar, scientist and an artist.
- 3) The dispute between faculty and administration was not resolved until faculty got better working condition.
- 4) Tim let his son to swim his friends.
- 7) Your heritage is different from mine.

Question no #05 (a)

A fly sat on one of shaft of a cart and said to the mule who was pulling it, "How slow you are? Do mend you pace, or I shall have use my stinging as a goad". The mule was not in least disturbed. "Behind me in the cart" said he, "fits my master. He holds the reins and flick me with his whip, and him I obey. But I don't want any of your impudence know when I may daubed and I may not."

Question no 5 (b)

Pre-position

- 1) Along
- 3) for
- 5) in
- 6) through
- 7) on

Question no 6

Sentences

	word	Meaning	Sentence
1)	Creek	A squeaking or groaning sound	The old wooden floor began to creek with every step.
	Creek	A small stream or river	We set up our camp next to a quiet creek in the woods.
2)	Palate	The roof of the mouth or a sense of taste	She has refined palate for fresh juice.
	Palette	A board with colors used by an artist	The artist carefully choose colors from his palette .

3)	Elicit	to draw out a response or reaction	The teacher's question was meant to elicit thoughtful responses from the student.
	Illicit	Illegal or not permitted	The police are cracking down on illicit activities in the area.
4)	Peal	(A loud burst of sound)	We heard a peal of laughter from across the room.
5)	Taut	stretched tight or tense	The rope was pulled taut to secure the tent.
	Taught	instructed or educated	She taught the children how to swim last summer.

Question 6 (b)

Mr. Thompson appeared before the judge seeking compensation for wrongful termination. He claimed that he was unfairly dismissed after only eight months on the job. However, the judge explained that under the law, employees with less than a year of services were not eligible for relief unless there was evidence of discrimination or a specific rights violation. Mr. Thompson insisted that his rights were violated, but the judge clarified that without those grounds, he could not grant relief. Despite Mr. Thompson's pleas, the judge's hands were tied by law, and he was unable to take further action. With a sense of resignation, Mr. Thompson thanked the judge and accepted the dismissal of his case.

Question no 07

Translation

Recently, a controversy erupted at a book fair in Lahore, as numerous stalls selling food drinks, and non literary items overshadowed the focus on books and literary activities, pushing the event's original purpose to the backseat. Many participants expressed disappointment, feeling that the book fair had largely become a food street, with little space and attention devoted to books authors and literary discussions. The overemphasis on food stalls at the fair sparked a debate on whether the event was serving its literary purpose or merely prioritizing commercial interests.