

Q:1

The human beings' fear of death is different from children's fear of darkness to some extent. The fear of human being is increased by the stories which they heard about the agony of dying man. Whereas, the fear of darkness of kids increased by the stories of the heard ghosts and thieves.

Q:2

The religious and sacred view of death as a kind of punishment for his sins he has committed, and if he looks upon death as a means of making an entry into another world.

Q:3

The Monks had described the painful experiences in their books that they underwent by inflicting physical tortures upon themselves as a form of self-purification. It seems that the pains of death must be indescribably agonizing.

Q:4

Seneca, the Roman Philosopher view that the circumstances and ceremonies of death frighten people more than death itself would do. The various rituals that are performed induce the fear of death into people even more.

DATE:     /     / 20

0.5g

There are some parts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise. Such as: the uttering groans heard by dying man, undergoing convulsions, bloodless and pale face, his friends begin to weep, the relations of dying person put on mourning clothes. These rituals make it more horrible.