

Date: _____

1- The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness is that the fear of darkness of children increases by the stories of the ghosts and thieves. Whereas, the fear of human beings increases by the stories they heard about pain of dying man.

2- The religious and sacred view of death is that death is only a mean of entry into another world. The world where human beings will get reward of their deeds.

3- The Monks have described the pain they get in the process of self-purification. They explain the painful experiences while enduring physical torture.

4- Seneca is of view that phenomenon of death is not as horrifying as it becomes due to different ceremonies.

Date: _____

performed by the loved ones.
Furthermore, the body of dying man shows changings and relatives start crying while wearing mourning clothes.

5- The facts that make
death appear more horrible are that body of the dying man becomes bloodless, relatives start crying, and
perform different rituals.