

Date: _____

Day: _____

Q NO 6

The diverse Muslim reformist movement of the sub-continent nurtured the sequential unity in the formulation of Two nation theory. Delineate.

Ans:

Introduction:

The Muslim identity have significant transformation owing to the influence of several Muslim reformist. The reformers like Sheikh Ahmad Raza Khan, Sheikh Waliullah, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan and other reformists played a crucial role in defining and strengthening the Muslims identity amidst the rising tide of colonialism, Hindu revivalism and western culture influence. These reformist through their social, political educational and regional reforms made them realized that they are in a dire need of separate homeland and nurtured the sequential unity in the formulation of two nation theory.

- Religious Reformist and their contributions

1- Sheikh Ahmad Sirhindhi:

Sheikh Ahmad Sirhindhi was a first reformer who ~~through~~ had social, political, religious reforms improved the conditions of then Muslims. During his time, Ulama ceased to refer Quran and Hadith and many un-Islamic practices are performed by then Muslims. He started preaching actual values of Islam. He abolished the Akbar Deen-e-Elahi and prohibited Inter-marriages. He reimposed jizya and encountered the concept of Wahdat-ul-wajood and presented the concept of Wahdat-ul-Shahed. He greatly emphasized that: "To consider ~~as~~ Ram and Rehman as one is stupidity, Because creator cannot be same as creature". He is the first one who put the thought of two nation theory in the minds of the Muslim of Subcontinent. According to Allama Iqbal, "He is the guardian of

Date: _____

Day: _____

Muslim faith in the sub-continent whom God had given a timely warning."

2- Shah Waliullah:

Shah Waliullah was also considered as one of the earliest figure who laid the foundation of Islamic reform in the subcontinent. He advocates for the return to Quran and Hadith teachings and emphasized on the Muslims' unity. His efforts were aimed at reviving Islamic values which were evolved from the Muslim society. He translated Quran into Persian to make it accessible to Non-Arabic Muslims fostering a sense of religious consciousness and unity.

3- Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

In 19th century, the emergence of Sir Syed Ahmed Khan ^{is} ~~was~~ remarked as a pivotal moment in the socio-political consciousness of Muslims. He emphasized on the modern education for Muslims to compete with Hindus and other communities under British rule. His Aligarh movement led to the establishment of educational institution where science and Islamic education given and create a new educated Muslim class who were conscious about their distinct identity.

Date: _____

Day: _____

4- Deobandi Movement:

The Deobandi movement in 19th century aimed to encounter British colonial influence and perceived ^{moral} decline of Muslim community. The Deobandi scholars advocated for strict adherence to Islamic law (Shari'ah) and rejection of western cultural influence. They established madrasa system across the country sub-continent to produce Islamic leaders to uphold Islamic value and revived Muslim identity.

Date: _____

Day: _____

Barelvi Movement:

The Barelvi movement stood in contrast to deobandi approach, promoting the sufi practices and veneration of saints and Prophet Muhammad. His main focus to define muslim identity and practice traditional Islamic values rather than aligning modern interpretations.

Role in Identity Formation:

The effort of these reformist contributed significantly to the creation of a distinct movement identity in the subcontinent by:

1- Cultural and Religious Revival:

Reformists like Shah Waliullah and Syed Ahmed Barelvi encouraged a return to ~~the~~ Islamic values, fostering the consciousness of religion and unity among muslims. This helped in nurturing the seed of Two-Nation Theory.

2- Educational Reforms:

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

Date: _____

Day: _____

emphasis on modern education to create a new Muslim class who are conscious of their distinct identity. Also equipped to navigate challenges opposed by British rule.

3- Resistance to Non-Muslim Dominance:

The Tihad movement led by Syed Ahmad Barelvi and establishment of religious institutions led by Deobandi movement provided a framework for religious and political resistance towards non-muslim dominance.

4- Social and Religious Coherion:

Both Deobandi and Barelvi movement, despite their difference worked towards the preservation of Muslim tradition and reinforcement of religious identity in the face of British colonialism.

• Conclusion:

The religious reforms in the subcontinent played a critical role in shaping the

Date: _____

Day: _____

Muslim identity and promoting education for consciousness of religious values. These efforts laid the groundwork for the Two nation theory, the demand for separate homeland and the creation of Pakistan.

Q NO 4

Critically evaluate Sir Syed's trinity of ideas i.e. loyalty towards Britishers, devotion to education and aloofness of Politics.

1- Introduction:

Sir Syed remained affiliated with Mughal Administration because his maternal grandfather has twice served as a Prime Minister of Mughal Emperor of his time. He started his career as a clerk with East India Company and after completing education served in the judicial department at various places. He served 20 British families during war and was made sadar-ul-suleha. But after the war the British became sole power. They blamed Muslims for revolt. Owing to this, Sir Syed insisted Muslims to be allegated with allegiance ^{to} British. A net also instructed Muslim to aloof from politics as they were not equiped with modern education. His Aijaz movement played a crucial role in making the Muslim conscis for their distinct identity, Th through teaching science and Islamic values to them.

Date: _____

Day: _____

2- Loyalty to Britishness:

After the useer of independence, British became the sole power in india and the Mughal empire had reached its ebb. Moreover, British became hostile to the Muslims and blamed the Muslims for being cause of revolt. In this hard time, Sir Syed Ahmed insisted the Muslims show allegance to British rules, as the Muslims were the minority. So, its the only way left for their survival. Perhaps he was implementing democratic ansion, but it is good sometime.

3- Aloofness from Politics: ~~temporality~~:

The visionary reformers instructed his fellow Muslim to aloof themselves from politics as they were not equiped with modern education and politic tactics. Because he no his fellows have no skill and politics demaning an educational mentality for ^{its} ~~his~~ successful delivery. Hence, his intellectuality compelled him to instruct Muslim to keep them away from politics and essere with education. As education is the only which bring them out of this colonialism.

4- Devotion to Education:

Sir Syed Ahmad was very devoted to education. He is the Author of 42 books. His famous work is 'Khutbat-e-Ahmadia'. In which he respond to the controversial point of William Muir in his about Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W). He collected the reference to respond during his stay to UK. His Aligarh Movement was a pure education venture. In this movement he made several societies, schools, colleges universities. The university ^{students} helped him in the political campaigns regarding muslim unity.

• Aligarh Movement Objectives:

- 1) To create a atmosphere of mutual understanding between British and Muslims
- 2) To persuade Muslims to learn English education
- 3) To persuade Muslims to abstain from Politics of agit
- 4) To produce an intellectual class of Muslims from Muslim

Date: _____

Day: _____

Community.

• Educational Aspect of Aligarh Movement:

His main goal was to open the minds of Muslim to European education, science and technology. For this, in 1859 built Gulshan School in Muradabad. In 1884, set up scientific society in Aligarh this society was involved in translating English works into native language. In 1856, published Aligarh Institute Gazette. This Gazette contain information on history, ancient and modern science and technology, natural and physical sciences and advanced mathematics. In 1875, built Muhammadan Anglo-Oriented School which later raised to level of college and in 1920 transformed into Muslim University.

5- Conclusion:

In a nutshell, Sir Ahmed Khan was a Messiah for the Muslim in the 19th century. He single handedly

Date: _____

Day: _____

Worked towards social, political educational and religious uplifting
This revival brought cult from the shadows of menance.
Sir Syed's Aligarh movement played an crucial role in bringing the revolution
among the Indian Muslims.