Ways to Attain Peace

In the presence of growing nuclear weapons, there is no need of wars.

These weapons ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> more powerful than the weapons used by the united forces of World War II. Countries are spending billions of dollars on the attainment of nuclear weapons, in order maintain peace. However, these destructive weapons are not the only way to avoid wars. Positive attitudes of nations can also make it possible to maintain peace. It surely helps to achieve stability and peace. However, people need to work on their attitudes. It is necessary to have an inner look, in order to compare it with the possibilities of attaining peace. Individuals must not consider war as inevitable, rather they <sup>must</sup> consider it manageable and less severe. Therefore, it helps nations to maintain peace and avoid war.

Q.No: 7 Translation

Recently a conflict arised in a book festival in Lahore because instead of focusing on books and literary factors, ~~where~~ there were a number of stalls of foods and non-literary things ~~were~~ being sold, demolished the actual purpose of the festival. A number of participants shown disappointment, and felt that the "book festival" have often become Bazaars of foods, in which there is less space and attention on books, authors and literary discussions. Due to excessive attention on food stalls, instead of giving importance to study and selling of books, a new discussion started whether this festival is fulfilling the literary purpose or only giving importance to ~~benefit~~ businesses.
