Q NO 5 (a)

A fly sat on one of the shaft of a cart and said to the Mule, who was pulling it, "How slow you are? Do mend your pace or I shall have to use my sting as a goad." The Mule was not in the least disturbed, behind me in the cart, he said, he sits my master, he holds the reins and flicks me with his whip and him, I obey, but, I don't want any of your impertinence. I know, when I may cradle and when I may not.

QNO# 2

A call for a peace

→ no of words in line = 23

→ Total no. of lines = 20

Total (Approx) words =  $460/3 = 153$

In this passage the author speaks about peace between new super powers. The author emphasized the necessity of rethinking war in the nuclear age, declaring total war obsolete because of its destructive consequences even more than all of the allied forces in WWII. He suggested that by spending billions on weapons every year is not the only means for peace. The ~~author~~ author asserted the need to rethink about their approaches towards peace. He argued that people must think rationally regarding peace, recognizing its possibility and working towards it. He further added that peace can only be achieved through collective actions.

For proving this he emphasized that peace is not impractical and war is not inevitable.

The writer stressed on the problem solving approach of human, as man-made problems can be solved through rational approach and cooperation.
