

English Comprehension

Q1. What is the difference between human beings fear of death and children's fear of death?

The difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of death is the stories that human beings have heard about the painful experience man goes through while dying. On the other hand, children's fear of darkness is intensified owing to the heard stories of ghost and thieves.

Q2. What is the religious and sacred view of death?

The religious and sacred view of death is when a human being perceives death as a means to hold him accountable for his committed sins as well as a way to enter into another world. In contrary, if human being perceives death as law of nature then he instills himself with fear to die and he becomes coward.

Q3. What are the painful experiences described by Monks in their books?

Monks have written books in which they have described painful experiences of death which has played an important role in elevating the ~~fair~~ fear among human being. ~~There~~ As they describe excruciating pain they go through while inflicting physical torture to themselves for the sake of self-purification. From this, it can be analysed how much painful the death is.

Q4. What are the views of Seneca about death?

Seneca, the Roman Philosopher, presents her views about death which encompasses the circumstances created by the people and ceremonies, followed by them such as loud crying sounds of people as people keep on mourning and groaning. The pale face of lying dead body and other death rites. These after death scenes make the experience death more painful which makes the people more fearful.

Q5. What are the facts that make death appear more ^{horrible} fearful than it would be otherwise?

The ceremonies and circumstances of fulfilling death rituals such as people groaning and weeping, wearing mourning clothes and crying over the lying dead body ^{with} which ~~looks~~ pale and bloodless face makes the death to appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.