

∴ Comprehension ∴

Question No 1-

The difference between human being's fear of death and children's fear of death darkness is that fear of darkness of children's increased by the stories of the heard ghosts and thieves, in the same way the fear of death in human beings is increased by the stories which they heard about the agony of dying man.

Question No 2:-

The religious and sacred view of death is that if human being regards death as a kind of punishment for his sins he has committed, this is religious view of death and if he regards death as a mean of entering from one world into another world then this is sacred view of death.

Question No 3:-

Monks have written books in which they have elaborated the painful experiences which they undergone by inflicting physical tortures upon themselves as a form of self-purification.

Question No 4:-

Seneca, the Roman Philosopher opined that the circumstances and ceremonies of death frighten more the people than death itself would do.

Question No 5:-

A dying man is heard uttering groans, his body is seen undergoing convulsions; his face appears to be absolutely bloodless and pale; at his death his friends begin to weep and his relations put on mourning cloths; various rituals are performed. All such facts make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.