

DATE: / /

QNO1: What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans: Human beings' fear of death is all about the story of a person on death bed. It is something like scary condition who he/she never faced in his/her life. While the fear of children is related to the stories of ghosts and thieves.

QNO2: What is a religious and sacred view of death?

Ans: Death is a penalty for sins. Moreover, it is a way to enter into another world. So, this is regarded as religious and sacred view of death.

QNO3: What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Ans: According to monks, whipping or any kind of physical tortures are means to purify himself or herself. Such kind of beliefs make death even more frightened.

QNO4: What are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans: According to Seneca, situations after death like ceremonies make death more scary than death itself. Situations like story of a dying person how he died. Moreover, crying makes environment even more horrible.

QNO5: What are the facts that make death

DATE: ___/___/___

appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans: Situation during death like a person was suffering from tremors. Moreover, his or her skin turned blue. His friends and relatives were crying. Some rituals are very terrifying. So, these are the facts which make death more horrible than death itself.