Q. 7

Translation.

Recently, a problem arose in Lahore, as instead of focusing on books and literary activities; different stalls - where food and non-literary stuff were being sold - brushed aside the real purpose of the fair.

Many attendees expressed disappointment, and felt that the book fair has turned to food bazaar, where books, authors, and literary dialogues were given less space and little attention. Owing to too much focus on food stall in the fair, instead of promoting the sale of books; the debate started whether this event was fulfilling literary goals or it was just limited to commercial interests.
