

Date: _____

M. Furqan

Batch 370

Comprehension:

Answer 1:

The major difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness; is the fear of kids is due to heard stories of ghosts and thieves, and for human beings, the agony of dying man.

Answer 2:

The religious and <sup>sacred</sup> ~~scared~~ view of death is that death is a kind of punishment for his sins and a means of making an entry into an other world.

Answer 3:

The painful experiences described by ~~monks~~ the Monks in their books are the physical tortures upon themselves as a form of self-purification.

Date: _____

Answer 4:

Seneca, the Roman Philosopher is that of the view that people are more frightened by the circumstances and ceremonies of death rather than death itself.

Answer 5:

The facts that make death more horrible are dying man uttering groans, his body undergoing convulsions, his face turns pale and appears bloodless. These facts make his death more horrible to his friends.