

Q.3 Read the passage and answer the questions.

(i) What is drought and its consequences?

Answer:

Drought is a meteorological condition in which there is no rainfall for months and streams, rivers and other water bodies dried up.

The consequences of drought are ruining of crops and death of cattles due to shortage of water.

(ii) Does the writer endorse the popular sayings about the red sky?

Answer:

No, the writer does not endorse the popular saying about the red sky. According to him, if these popular sayings about the red sky were true, then there would be no weather science. These sayings were just assumptions.

(iii) Is weather forecasting a science; if so, what is it called?

Answer:

Yes, weather forecasting is a

Weather science. The study of weather changes and its pattern is called meteorology.

(iv) Why it is not easy to forecast the weather?

Answer:

Forecasting the weather is not easy task. There are number of parameters such as pressure, humidity and temperature need to be studied before making a forecast.

(v) How would the moon help the people in forecasting weather?

Answer:

People used to predict weather by watching moon in early times when there were no instruments. They thought that moon was a water body and its position could predict rain. Still many people think the same. A clear moon sky shows sunny weather as per people.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q.4 Correct any five?

(i) Allen Turing was a scholar, scientist and artist.

(ii) Being thoroughly unsatisfied with the painting, it was hidden in the closet.

(iii) Your heritage is different than my I.

(iv) Tim ~~has~~ ^{let} his son to swim with his friends.

(v) He has four-years subscription for that magazine.

Q.5 A Punctuate?

A fly sat on one of the shafts of a cart and said to the mule; "Who was pulling it? How slow you are. Do mend your pace or I shall have to use my sting as a goad." The mule was not in the least disturbed behind me in the cart said; "He sits my mast. He holds the reins and flicks me with his whip and him I obey. But I don't want any of your impatience. I know when I may dawdle and when I may not."

B Prepositions?

(vi) If you study the material very thoroughly, you will have no trouble in the examination.

(vii) We were walking in the woods when, all of sudden, we heard a strange sound.

(viii) The course will commence on 1st May, 2025.

(ix) We walked along the beach for several hours last night.

(x) The article discusses, on the most part, the possibility of life on the other planets.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q.6

Make sentences?

(i) Peal: "Peal the potatoes please", she requested/asked her mother.

Peel: She made the soup of peelings of tomatoes.

(ii) Palate: Her tongue struck in the palate and she could not speak.

Palette: She mixes colours on the palette.

(iii) Taught: Mr. Ali taught us English in school.

Taut: Her shoe is made up of taut.

(iv) Faint: Today is very hot. If I go outside, I would be fainted.

Feint: She acted like feint but actually she is not.

(v) Room she entered in a medical room for check-up.

Rheum She got fractured in rheum bone.

B- Rewrite the dialogue?

The judge asked the plaintiff, Mr. Thompson, that you are seeking compensation for wrongful termination. The plaintiff replied that yes, Your Honor. He believed that he was unfairly dismissed. The judge asked that you were let go after eight months. The plaintiff agreed to judge. Then judge explained to the plaintiff that under the law, employees with less than a year were not eligible for relief unless there's evidence of discrimination or a specific rights violation. The plaintiff said that he felt his rights were violated. The judge said that he understood but he could not grant relief. Then the plaintiff asked that there is nothing I could do. The judge said that he connected him and said his hands were tied by the law. The plaintiff understood the judge and thanked him. Then case was dismissed by the judge.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q.7 Translate?

Recently, a book fair in Lahore got controversial when in spite of focusing on books and literature activities, there were selling of edible items and unliterature things ^{on stalls}. It has pushed back the real objective of fair. Many attendants showed disappointment and felt that ~~fair~~ book fair has become food place where a little place and attention is given to books, authors and literal dialogues. After giving too much importance to food stalls other than promoting studying and selling of books, there arises a debate whether this ceremony was fulfilling literature goals or just preferring trade interests.

Q.1 Preci?Need of Peace

The author feels that in today's world, the dimensions of war have been changed to a dangerous level. Nuclear countries do not surrender to each other. The more expenditures on the modern war tactics is to make sure of peace. But peace is not possible with acquiring weapons. Peace is only possible with the rational attitude towards the world. It is every individual's responsibility before a nation's responsibility. Peace need to be practicable in every way to resist wars.

Total words in passage = 1140

Total words in prec = 524

