

Quiz # 07
Fatima Urooj
(03-10-2024)

Q1:

The writer explains that, the main difference between Human beings fear of death and childrens fear of darkness is that, childrens get more scared by listening to the horrible stories, However, human beings get more scared from death, after listening about the death of other human beings.

Q2:

The religious and sacred view of death is that, death is a way to get freedom from the world. Human beings should see death as a path to enter into a new world. The strictness of death is nothing, just a punishment for ones sins, which they committed during his/her entire life. That show, the writer explains the religious and sacred view of death.

Q3:

Monks described the painful experience of death in their books, as a painful journey. They explained the life after death, as full of physical punishments of the sins people committed in their lives. Monks argue that these punishments would make one pure. Thus, death is a path filled with hardships and punishments.

Q4:

Seneca was a Roman philosopher, he explains that people are not scared from death, they only get fearful when they see the specific ceremonies, and rituals, and situations of death. That's why, people get more and more frightened from it.

Q5:

There are different actions people perform, when someone dies. It includes bad situation of the dead body, its face, its movement, less body, weeping by his relatives and friends, making its clothes, and a lot of other rituals makes death more horrible than it actually is.