

Q1:

Ans: The difference between human being's fear of death and ~~fear~~ of children fear of darkness is that the latter based on imaginary stories and which is not existable in nature. While, the former fear is based on reality and <sup>has</sup> existence as well. ~~It~~

Q2:

Ans: A religious and sacred view of death is that it is to admit that the death is just an entrance and pathway to the other world. And all his deeds will be rewarded ~~ac~~ in accordance to what he has done in his life.

Q3:

Ans: Monks described about physical torture ~~is~~ agony of death. He explains that human will be punished for his sins, and such thoughts of the people, further scare them about the death.

Q4:

Ans: Seneca is of the view that the rites and ceremonies performed on deaths are even more horrifying than the death itself. All the situations of a person's death is more scary for anyone who is present at that

Q5:

Ans: The facts ~~at~~ that make death more horrible is hearing the stories about the situation of a demised person, attending the ceremonies, the condition of friends and relatives at the ceremonies, and the rite and rituals performed ~~at~~ upon the death. All these facts contribute in making the death more horrible.

2024.10.03 18:04