

Name: Umair Rasool

Batch: 367

LMS ID: 34020

Q No: 1 (Ans)

The childrens fear of darkness is spread through the stories of heard ghosts and thieves. While human beings fear of death is spread by stories which they heard about the agony of dying man.

Q No: 2

Through the lens of religious and sacred view of death, a human being should regard death as a kind of punishment for his sins he has committed and if he looks upon death as a means of making an entry from one to another world.

Q: No 3

Monks have written books in which they have described the painful experiences which they underwent by inflicting physical torture upon themselves as a form of self purification.

Q: No 4

The Seneca view about death is that the circumstances and ceremonies of death frighten people more than the death itself would do.

Q NO: 5

The following facts make death appear more horrible: the uttering groans a dying man heard; his body is seen undergoing convulsions; his face appears to be bloodless and pale; at his death his friends began to weep and his relations put on mourning clothes.