

Q1. What is the difference between human being's fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans Human being's fear of death is because of the stories which they heard about the agony of dying man, while children's fear of darkness is all about the stories of ghost and thieves they heard.

Q2. What is religious and sacred view of death?

Religious and sacred view of death is when human being considers death as a kind of punishment he committed in the past and ~~he~~^{when} he thinks that death is just a mean to go into another world for self-purification.

Q3. What are painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Monks have written books in which they have described the painful experiences that some monks or or individuals subjected themselves to painful physical sufferings or harsh practices, believing that these acts would cleanse their soul to make them spiritually pure.

Q4. What are the views of Seneca about death?

Seneca is of the view that the circumstances and ceremonies of death frighten more than the death itself would do. It means that death itself is not that terrible as the ceremonies made it.

Q5. What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be?

The facts include uttering groans; his body starts an uncontrollable shaking; his face appears to be absolutely bloodless and pale. Such facts make death appear more horrible than it would be.