Q. Read the following text carefully and answers the questions below (20)

Questions:

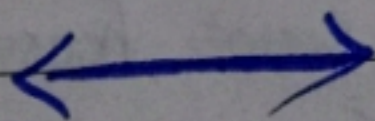

1. What is the difference between human beings fear for death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans. Human beings fear death like children fear darkness. Children's fear for darkness is worsened by hearing ghost stories, while the fear of death in adults is heightened by stories about the suffering of dying.

2. What is a religious and sacred view of death?

Ans. A religious and sacred view of death is when a person considers death as a form of punishment for their sins and as a means to enter another world.

3. What are the painful experiences described by the monks in their books?

Ans. Monks describe painful experiences in their books where they inflicted physical torture on themselves as a form of self-purification. These experiences contribute to the belief that death is extremely painful.

4. What are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans. Seneca believed that the circumstances and ceremonies surrounding death, such as the groans of a dying person and the rituals that follow, frighten people more than death itself.

5. What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans. The groans of a dying man, his body convulsions, his pale and bloodless face, the weeping of friends and the rituals performed after death make death seem more horrifying.
