

DATE: ___/___/___

Procedure of World

Man Cannot survive alone.

He requires clothes to food and shelters that are made by others.

It is a way of livelihood. Similarly, children require someone as a computer. Teachers and books are required to educate people.

Laws are made by people who are dead, to secure rights and property of next generations. Friends are require in bliss and sorrow.