

Question No 1

The human beings are afraid to death just as children afraid to darkness. The children are afraid because they hear the stories that ghost and thieves are come at night. Similarly Human being hear the toughness of death. They are frightful to death.

Question No 2

The religious view of death is man enter another world. He faces the result of his doing. If he does mistakes he enters into heaven. In the result of bad evil he bears punishment. Therefore man are afraid to death.

Question No3

Monks have written the painful experience of body torture. He describes that the pain of death is unexplainable it is like someone torture themselves to remove evil and purify his-self.

Question No4

The Seneca is a Roman philosopher. who describes that the stories and perception of death makes it horrible for people. The circumstance makes it more afraid.

Questions-

There are certain circumstances that makes death more horrible. He is undergone convulsion. His face become pale. He hears the voice of weep and crying of his family.

But his body does not work these (body) selective performs different signals. He observes everything. But do nothing, it makes it more horrible than it would be otherwise.

---

---